Women's Institute Has May Meeting

"Say something good about the person on your left" was the roll call for the May meeting of the Haileybury Women's Institute held last Thursday in the Legion Hall, with Mrs. Ivan Sadler in the chair. Mrs. E. B. Campbell reported to the members regarding the district directors' meeting which she had attended in New Liskeard.

Delegates appointed to attend the district annual meeting in Temagami were Mrs. I. Sadler, Mrs. R. MacGillivray, Mrs. E. B. Campbell and Mrs. W. Garbutt.

Mrs. MacGillivray, who had attended the Workshop on Tweedsmuir Histories, held in New Liskeard recently, as a district project, told the members of the many interesting suggestions and advice given by Mrs. Walker, who conducted the Workshop.

The lunch committee for June will be Mrs. George Johnston,

New Books At Library

The following new books have been placed on the shelves of the Library recently; "The Watch that ends the Night", by Hugh McLennan; "The Last Frontier", by Alister MacLean; "The Bespoken Mile", by March Coat; "Red Queen, White Queen", by Henry Treece; "The Search" by C. P. Snow.

The librarian is pleased that the attendance at the Library which had dropped with the advent of TV into the town has now returned to normal.

Mrs. J. Hallworth and Mrs. John Fleming.

Following the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. S. MacIntyre, Mrs. E. B. Campbell and Mrs. H. Gibson served lunch.
