

Cobalt Socials

Friendship Group

The Friendship Group of Cobalt United Church held their regular monthly meeting, the last for the season at the home of Mrs. Nettie Wallman on Tuesday, June 16th. President, Mrs. Helen Mallett presided. The minutes were read by the Secretary Mrs. Signa Kangas and the meeting was turned over to the committee in charge for the devotional. A scripture reading, Psalm 121, was given by Margaret Rajala followed by a reading based on this Psalm by Mrs. Della Hetherington. A short prayer was given by Helen Mallett. The treasurer's report by Alice Browne showed gratifying results from the recent rummage sale. Baby clothes which were left over from this sale are to be given to the VON to distribute as she sees fit. Vera Cassidy moved a vote of thanks to all who helped to make this sale the success it was. Each member was asked to use her talents during the summer months as a money raising project which will be turned into the Church hall building fund in the fall. Mrs. Marjorie Menzies offered the use of her home for the first meeting in September which will be a pot luck supper for the members. The President thanked the hostess Mrs. Wallman for her hospitality, and the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction after which a lovely lunch was served by the committee in charge.

Farewell To The V.O.N.

The final meeting of the Cobalt-Coleman branch of the V.O.N. took the form of a farewell party for the local V.O.N. Miss Gwen Miller and the Regional Director Miss C. Maddafor which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moss, O'Brien Property, on Thursday, June 18th. Several contests were conducted followed by a sing-song and Mrs. Ernie Geck favoured the gathering with a few vocal solos. A presentation was made by Mrs. Cora Duncan, President of the local branch, to Miss Maddafor and Miss Miller. These were attractive desk sets with mountings of five different types of ores found in the Cobalt mining area. The hostess Mrs. Arthur Moss served lunch to the members and guests who included: Mrs. T. J. Duncan, Mrs. A. St. Laurent, Mrs. E. Geck, Mrs. M. Ostman, Miss Lucy Damiani, Mrs. B. Jackson, Mrs. H. St. Paul's Choir Honors Minister

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. W. Wilkinson, who are leaving St. Paul's United Church here for new duties at Huntsville, have been guests of honor at several church affairs.

Members of the choir and their escorts entertained at the home of the organist, Mrs. A. H. Herity, in New Liskeard, when an evening of games and singing was enjoyed and a presentation of a coffee percolator was made to Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson.

On Friday, June 19, the congregations of the Haileybury and North Cobalt United Churches held an enjoyable pot luck supper in honor of the Wilkinsons. During the evening, Mrs. Wilkinson was presented with a corsage of yellow roses and on behalf of the congregation, Mr. C. F. Tuer presented Mr. Wilkinson with a purse.

On Monday, June 22, Mrs. M. B. Glazier opened her home to the members of the Women's Federation when they met to present Mrs. Wilkinson with a token of appreciation and affection.

Cobalt Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Mulligan and Gerry left Monday for Thessalon where they will be vacationing for two weeks. Mr. Mulligan will go on from there to Sault St. Marie where he will attend the reception for the President of the Rebekah Assembly Sister Margaret Rose to be held on June 27.

Mrs. Leo Scully left for St. Catharines to spend a few weeks visiting Mrs. A. H. Gillard.

Constable Hugh Wright and his mother, Mrs. J. Wright spent Wednesday in North Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Hastings Connelly received word recently of the birth of their first grandchild, a son, Patrick John, born to Mr. and Mrs. James Hayden, nee Betty Connelly of Montreal on Saturday, May 30.

Miss Ethel Herbert has given up her apartment in the Adams block and returned to Sudbury where she will reside with her sister, Mrs. Amy Perry. Miss Herbert has spent the past three weeks visiting relatives and friends in Haileybury and Cobalt.

Miss Dorothy Tresidder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Tresidder was a patient in Haileybury hospital where she underwent a tonsillectomy.

Miss Shirley McLeod of Brampton is visiting friends in Cobalt.

Mr. and Mrs. John Damiani, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Presse, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bilodeau, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Bilodeau, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Slaght motored to Angliers on Wednesday, June 17, to attend the Angliers Lions Club Ladies' Night and official visit of Zone Chairman John Damiani. While there the members of the Cobalt Lions Club picked up the gong and gavel of the Angliers Club.

Mr. Albert Svekers of Siscoe Metals, O'Brien, visited Cobalt over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McGugan and family motored to Charlton Friday night and on their return they were accompanied by Mr. McGugan's mother, Mrs. D. C. McGugan who will be visiting in Cobalt for awhile.

Fun Fair

The Fun Fair sponsored by a number of Haileybury school children last Saturday afternoon was quite successful, netting the sum of $59.27. The winner of the ten dollar draw, Mr. Carm Donegan, donated it to the fund, bringing the total up to $69.27, which will be turned over to the Rotary Club for the Crippled Children's Fund.

Among the bingo winners at the Fair were Roger Allard, Heather Pearson, Ricky Dinesen, Mrs. K. Watson, Frances Caron and Susan Cavanagh.

Those in charge of the Fair would like to thank everyone who helped in any way, either by attending or donating, to make their project such a success.
