Adults Included In Swim Programme

Haileybury people of all ages will have a chance to participate in the swim program at the Rotary Beach this year. Recreation officials have disclosed that they are going to start something new in the area, adults who wish to learn the aquatic arts or those who already have learned to float but have not mastered the fine points of swimming will have a chance to learn and improve.

The adult classes will be given every night starting at five p.m., the recreation commission hopes that all interested in the new venture will show their enthusiasm by attending.

Artificial respiration classes are scheduled every Thursday night, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., recreation officials feel that this aspect of the swim program is especially important.

The younger generation has responded to the summer program with greater enthusiasm than anticipated. With the program less than a week under way, close to one hundred turned out to learn swimming skills from the three attractive Red Cross instructors, Pat Arnold, Cathy Neelands and Erna St. Louis.

Swimming for the younger groups starts at 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Red Cross instruction is given for Junior, Intermediate, Senior groups and Bronze Medallion.

The Haileybury Recreation Commission has spent five hundred dollars improving the beach facilities this year.

C. Grozelle, president of the Recreation Commission, said, "So far we have received a good response to our summer program, this is obvious by the number of people enrolled in the various activities. People here are receptive to our plan to unify recreation activities so that every facility in the town may be put to the best possible use. We feel that this is only

Soccer Draw

The Cohalis Soccer Club draw for a Hi-Fi set was held last Sunday at the Beach Park.

The set was won by Armand Trudel of Haileybury. The local club added to the fun of the afternoon by defeating the North Bay Hungarians by a 4-1 score.

the beginning, we hope to improve the organization of recreation in the town each year. This fall Haileybury will be the meeting point for recreation representatives from all parts of Northern Ontario, the purpose is to meet the organizers of other centers, discuss the problems of recreation common to all and learn new methods for better use of present facilities."

The summer program also provides for the younger tots in the town. Joyce Houghtling and Sally Whitby, two Haileybury girls are supervising at the Rotary Beach every day from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Besides entertaining the youngsters they teach various handicrafts. The present classes are quite large and they are expected to increase during the summer. Enrolment is limited to children from four to 12 years old. Highlight of the season will be an overnight camping trip for regular attenders.

Rev. Charles E. Peacock has come to Haileybury to head St. Andrews United Church. Mr. Peacock comes well experienced with thirty-nine years of service in the United Church Ministry. Mr. Peacock is originally from England and has preached in such places as Newfoundland and Bermuda. Mrs. Peacock, who is a native of Newfoundland, accompanied her husband to his new charge.

Dan Millar

The community was shocked by the sudden death of Daniel Hunter Millar at his home in Haileybury on Sunday evening, June 28, 1959.

Born at Pembroke in 1895, son of Daniel and Ellen Millar, he joined the Bank of Nova Scotia in North Bay, where he enlisted in the 159th Battalion in March, 1916. He served overseas in England, France and Belgium and was severely wounded in action. After demobilization at Kingston in March, 1918, he came to the Bank of Nova Scotia in Haileybury and later transferred to the branch in Heward, Saskatchewan as manager. Returning to the district, he took a position with The George Taylor Hardware Ltd. in 1923.

He became Credit Manager of the firm and more recently, secretary-treasurer and director of Taylor Hardware and White Hardware Ltd.

He was an active member of the United Church, and a prominent mason, having served as Secretary to the District Deputy Grand Master in 1953. He acted as councillor in Haileybury for a number of years, and was twice president of the Northern Ontario Golf Association. He had a keen interest in curling and attended the MacDonald Briar in 1927, 1936, 1937 and 1939, as a member of the Northern Ontario rinks.

A Masonic service was held at his home on Tuesday evening, and Dr. George Johnston and Rev. J. W. W. Wilkinson conducted the funeral services on Wednesday, July 1, at St. Andrew's United Church and Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Honorary pall-bearers included Emmett Smith, Toronto, Terrence Smith, H. E. Cawley and George Pratt, Haileybury. Active pall-bearers were R. A. H. Taylor and A. W. Moore, New Liskeard, R. A. Murphy, Lorne Umphrey, C. E. Tuer, Haileybury and George Smith, Toronto.

He is survived by his wife, the former Alice Johnston of Haileybury, three daughters, Mrs. R. W. (Gwen) Greenwood, Cincinnati, Ohio, Mrs. W. C. (Mary) Miller, Ottawa and Mrs. D. C. (Mollie) Palmeter, Carlton Place, and six grandchildren. He is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. Donaldson, Ottawa, Mrs. Acheson, Belleville, and Mrs. Allen, Calgary.

Police Seek Murder Gun On Montreal River Bed

So far Elk Lake police have had no success in their search for a red straw suitcase reported to be resting on the bottom of the Montreal River near that busy resort town.

Intensive dragging operations have been going on for the suitcase believed to contain a sawed off 22 rifle used in the slaying of two Huntsville cab drivers. The suitcase belongs to 17-year-old Annie Young, held as a material witness in the case.

Marvin McKee of Dwight and Wayne Sluman have been jointly charged with the murder of Frank Grosso and Bruce Spiers of Huntsville. The trio were seen in the Elk Lake District a few days before roadblocks were set up to recover the murdered Taxi drivers' cab. Sluman evaded the block by hitch hiking back to Huntsville where he was placed under arrest.

The other two took to the bush, abandoning the cab at Osseo, they took to the bush, and stole a boat belonging to Alex McKee, an uncle of the man. It was later found abandoned on the Montreal River, and its recovery led to the capture of the pair.

Corporal Tim Armstrong and Constable William Adair walked into the bush near where the boat was found and found McKee and the girl asleep. They offered no resistance when arrested.

Both were hungry and badly fly-bitten, but did not require medical treatment.

Pacers Race

New Liskeard Turf Club has swung its meet from midweek in an effort to bolster the attendance, and will hold this week's racing on Saturday evening, commencing at 7 p.m.

Half Century Of Wedded Bliss

July 1, 1959, was the date of their Golden Wedding Anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Liddicot of Haileybury.

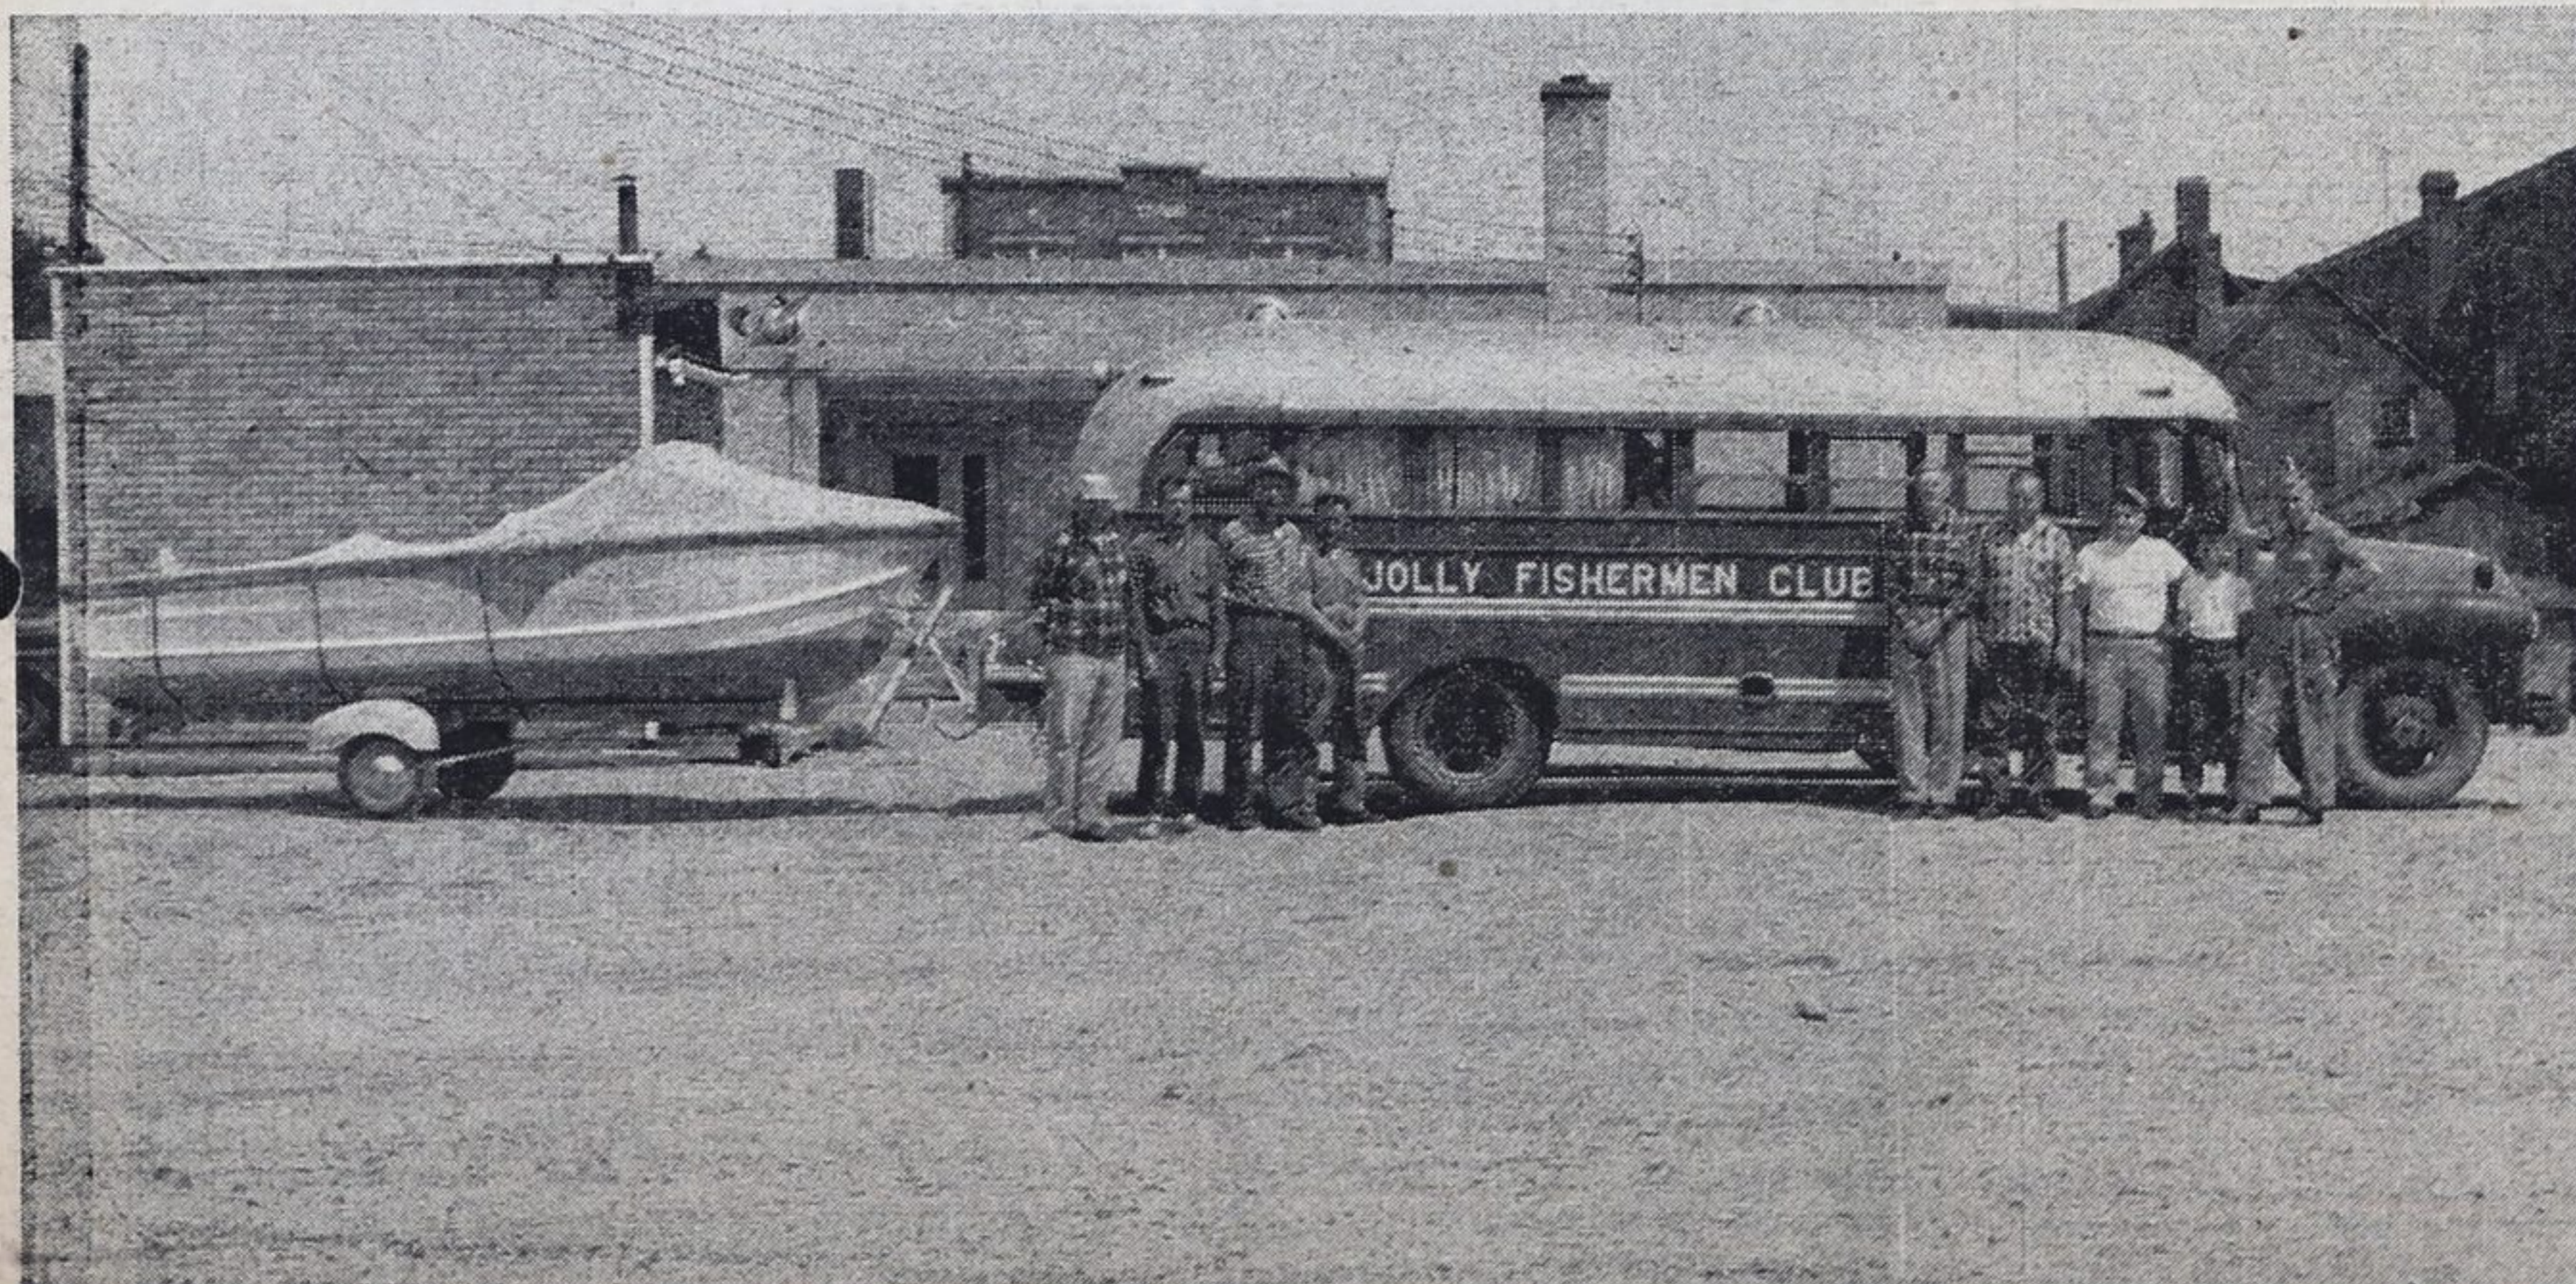

Married in England, they came to Canada on their honeymoon and decided to stay and resided in Toronto for almost two years.

Moving to Cochrane from Toronto in 1911, Mr. Liddicot entered into the purchasing field of the Pulpwood business and continued in this enterprise for many years.

In 1927, he, with his wife and daughter took up residence in Haileybury, where he had arranged to open the distributing warehouse and retail store of the Brewers' Warehousing Co., Ltd.

He continued as contractor and manager in this appointment until 1952, when he retired from business and has since spent his summers at his cottage on Lady Evelyn Lake.

Numerous telegrams were received from California, British Columbia, Toronto and Temagami and out of town guests included their daughter Shirley with her husband Ben Norris of Timmins, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. H. Mahon of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. H. Atkins of Kirkland Lake.

Nine Jolly Fishermen of the Jolly Fisherman's Club from Ohio took Northern Ontario by surprise when they rolled into the North with their mobile club house. The fishermen were well equipped for the ordeal, besides a boat and trailer and three outboard motors, they carried with them four bunk beds and two sofas for relaxing while they journeyed.
