Noble Grand Agatha Cameron welcomed fifteen members of Golden Gate Lodge, Kirkland Lake, several members from Northern Beacon Lodge as well as Sister Stanley from Victory Lodge, B.C., to the meeting of the Silver Rebekah Lodge which was held Wednesday, June 24, in the I.O.O.F. Hall. The meeting opened in regular form and the Duties of Officers were repeated. Routine business was conducted with gratifying reports given by the various committees. Vice-Grand Carrie Birch listed several members and families had been ill and cards and gifts had been sent. Sister Signe Kangas read the financial report for the C.P.T. committee. Noble Grand congratulated the C.P.T. for its excellent report. A letter was read from Mrs. Fairman of New Liskeard announcing that the District meeting is to be held in New Liskeard on Saturday, July 4. Sister M. Greensides reported she now had materials for the members to make up into articles for sale at the fall bazaar to be held October 9. First nomination of officers for the ensuing term was held. Several of the members thanked the Lodge or unknown friends for cards and gifts they had received. The Noble Grands of the two visiting lodges spoke briefly and thanked the Silver Rebekah Lodge for an enjoyable evening. Sister Muriel Tresidder reported having visited Sister Iva Brydges, who wished to be remembered to all her friends. Sister Cameron thanked all members who filled in for the various officers. As there was no further business lodge closed in regular form. Following the closing the officers exemplified the "Lord's Prayer", with candles. Sister Muriel Tresidder was soloist. Sister Marie Greensides who was in charge of the entertainment is to be congratulated on the excellent program which was made up of a reading by Sister Larsen, skits, games and a sing-song. A cold plate supper was served by the losing "Attendance" team and to the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" the guests left for home.

Baby Shower

Mrs. J. Yanyk and Mrs. D. Swaychuk were joint hostesses for a stork shower in honour of Mrs. Claude Lacroix held Tuesday, June 23, at the home of Mrs. D. Swaychuk. The evening was pleasantly passed with games and bingo after which the guest of honour opened her gifts assisted by Mrs. Yanyk and Miss Rita Belanger. The many attractive and useful items included a bathinette, high chair and stroller. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Swaychuk assisted by Mrs. Yanyk, Mrs. Bosselle, Mrs. P. Sylvester and Mrs. E. Belanger.

Firemen's Tournament

The Cobalt Volunteer Fire brigade team placed 4th in the wagon race held at the annual Firemen's tournament in South Porcupine Wednesday, July 1st, and carried off a cup and $15.00 prize money. Twenty-four teams were entered in this year's tournament. Albert Chitaroni, representing Cobalt, placed third in the Firemen's foot race. The tournament this year formed a part of the Porcupine Old Home week celebrations. Among those from Cobalt who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Tresidder, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Audette, Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Birch, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Birch, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Sauve, Ernie Bilodeau, Pete Audette, George Cambrey, Mel Eno and Albert Chitaroni.

AUTIO - YOUNIE

A wedding of interest to Cobalt residents took place on Saturday, July 4th, at 7 p.m. in Trinity United Church, Kirkland Lake, when Jacqueline Stella Younie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Younie of Kirkland Lake, became the bride of Robert John Autio, son of Mrs. Aino Autio and the late Olavi Autio of Kirkland Lake, formerly of Cobalt. Yellow and coral gladioli formed the setting for the double ring ceremony. Miss Sylvia Hoshko sang "O Perfect Love" and during the signing of the register "Because". The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a cocktail length gown of embroidered nylon with scoop neckline, cap sleeves and bouffant skirt. A pearl headdress held her shoulder length tulle veil and her only jewellery was a single strand of pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Gilmore, sister of the bride, was matron of honor wearing a pale yellow nylon chiffon gown with floating back panel, a headdress band of white feathers and carried a bouquet of shasta daisies. The groomsmen were Ronald McArdeall.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the rainbow room of the Park Lane Hotel with music provided by Johnny Garbutt's orchestra. Mrs. Younie, mother of the bride, attired in beige and blue muted print dress with white hat and corsage of white carnations, received the guests assisted by the groom's mother who chose a dress of blue and white printed crepe with matching jacket, blue straw hat and corsage of pink carnations.

The bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to points in Northern Ontario and on their return will reside at 29 McCamus Avenue in Kirkland Lake.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Ellis Autio, Mrs. Jack Haarala, Mr. Allan Haarala, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rajala, and Miss Helvie Niemi, all of Cobalt.

Farewell Party

About twenty friends of Mrs. Allan Brown gathered at the home of Mrs. Maurice Belanger on Sunday, July 12, for a farewell get-together prior to Claire's moving to her new home at Gowganda. The guests spent a pleasant evening of games, singing and listening to records. A presentation of lingerie, bath soap and brooch and earrings was made to the guest of honour. A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses Rhea Duval, Helen Forget and Colleen Belanger. Those who attended were Louise Hayes of Montreal, Rita Bazinet, Anita Bilodeau, Giselle Pickard, Lucille Kingston, Theresa Sullivan, Teen Slaght, Jean Tresidder, Georgie Church, Connie Perreault, Jeanette Belanger, Edith Price, Maisie Rody, Dell Dean, Rhea Duval, Helen Forget, Colleen Belanger, and the guest of honour Claire Brown.

Reverend Johnston Leaves Cobalt

A social evening was held recently at Buffam's cottage for Rev. and Mrs. George S. Johnston who have left Cobalt to take up residence at New Port, Vermont. The Johnstons came to Cobalt from Englehart two years ago, and took an active part in school, community and church affairs. During the evening a purse was presented to Rev. Johnston by Hugh Armstrong and the presentation of a brooch and earring set to Mrs. Johnston by Mrs. Isabel Fildes, president of St. James W.A. A lovely lunch, provided by the ladies of the W.A., was served. St. James Anglican Church in Cobalt will be without a resident minister until the new minister arrives which will be sometime in August, but church services will be held as usual on Sunday a.m. at 11 o'clock with Rev. Nixon of Haileybury officiating.

Girl Guides Return From Camp

Lovely weather was enjoyed by the local Girl Guides who returned home Saturday from ten days of camping at Sesekinika Lake. The camp site was comprised of three large cabins and a main lodge and fourteen girls of the Pioneer camp were in tents. Camp leadership was under Connie Perreault of Cobalt as Commandant assisted by Mrs. W. Ross of New Liskeard. Mrs. Dave Herbert of Haileybury was in charge of Pioneers, Mrs. Arnold Armstrong of Englehart was Camp Nurse and Mrs. Jean Giovanella, Area Camp Advisor, was camp cook. Miss Margaret Oliver of Kirkland Lake was the swimming instructress and Christine Ross of New Liskeard attended as Junior leader. The camp had an enrolment of 44 Girl Guides, 7 members of the staff and 2 children. The camp program began at 7:30 a.m. and was a fully planned day of camp management and camp duties, swimming, test work, canoeing, boating and hiking. Highlight of the week was a masquerade and a fancy hat party, both fashioned with articles provided by nature. "Upsidedown Day" was greatly enjoyed by all and to round off the camp schedule one full day was provided for a hike away from camp. On Thursday, July 9, Mrs. Jean Giovanella and Mrs. Dave Herbert, District Commissioner, left the camp for the day to go to Barbers Bay near Connaught to inspect a camp site there. Former Camp Advisor Mrs. W. Grice and Mr. Sanky of Kirkland Lake were visitors to the camp for a day. Cobalt Guides who attended the camp were Rosemary Brown, Genevive Gareau, Beverly Tryon, Frances Parcher, Bernadette Cuillerier, Doreen Draper, Linda Cunningham, Patricia Bazinet and Sharon Valley.

Cobalt Family Move To Abitibi Canyon

Mrs. Harry Smith was hostess to about ten friends and neighbours of Mrs. Irene Sparks who is leaving Cobalt shortly to make her home at Abitibi Canyon. The party was held on Thursday, July 9. Bingo was played during the evening after which a T.V. lamp was presented to Mrs. Sparks by Mrs.

Alma Steele on behalf of those present. A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. Fred Tryon, Mrs. C. Fenton, Mrs. J. Parcher, Mrs. A. Steele and Mrs. Smith. Those present were Mrs. Nora MacDougall, Mrs. Helen Mallett, Mrs. Alice Riley, Mrs. Mercedes Rody, Mrs. J. Riley, Mrs. Hilda Parcher, Mrs. C. Fenton, Mrs. Alma Steele, Mrs. Fred Tryon, Mrs. H. Smith and the guest of honour, Mrs. Irene Sparks.

Birthday Party at Bass Lake

Patsy Taylor celebrated her eleventh birthday on Thursday, July 9, by inviting six of her young friends to spend the afternoon at her grandparents cottage at Bass Lake. A few games were played but most of the time was spent in the water. A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Taylor assisted by Patsy's grandmother Mrs. C. H. Taylor. Patsy received many lovely presents from her guests who included Nancy, Clare and Ruth Bazinet, Sharon Cunningham, Ruth Saxton and Carol Cull.
