Location of Haileyburian

It has come to our notice several of our townspeople do not know where the Haileyburian office is at present, so for their information it is moved from the former building to a room over the Bank of Nova Scotia.

At present Mrs. N. J. McAuley, Sr., is in charge in Mrs. MacDonald's absence who is on a trip overseas.

There were fifteen girls from Haileybury who attended the ten day camping activities at Lake Sesekinika. They returned home Saturday, July 11.

They reported a wonderful time

Five of these girls worked for their Pioneer Badge, which meant living in tents and attending to their own needs. They were Joanne Murphy, Jackie Watson, Evelyn Rivard, Margaret Menzie and Lynn Hargrave and were under the leadership of Mrs. Dave Herbert.

They visited the Crippled Children's Camp and on Sunday attended Mass and other church services there.
