Fire Department Answers Two Calls

COBALT—Two calls were answered Friday afternoon by the Cobalt Volunteer Fire Brigade. The first call came shortly before one o'clock to the home of Joe Tittonel at 203 Lang Street, where the fire is believed to have started from an overheated stovepipe and spread rapidly through the walls. Firemen managed to bring it under control within a short time but damage was severe. Heavy damage to furnishings was caused by smoke and water. Later in the afternoon the brigade answered a second call to Commission Street where a grass fire fanned by a high wind got out of control and threatened several nearby buildings. The hose from the pumper was sufficient to extinguish this blaze.
