Cobalt Welcomes Artist Colony

COBALT—Sunny skies prevailed throughout last week when Cobalt welcomed the Second Annual Artist Colony of the N.O.A.A. which got under way on Monday, July 13th, when the artists were taken on a tour to the points of interest in the Cobalt area. On Tuesday the actual painting got under way and Cobalt streets proved to be a very popular choice and several chose some of the old mill sites. Last year the old mine shafts and properties were more popular. A welcoming party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong Monday evening which gave the artists a chance to get acquainted. The evening was spent "talking art" and a lovely lunch was served by the hostess. On Wednesday the painting resumed and in the evening the artists met at the Cobalt Art Studio on the Square for coffee and the showing of slides of the first and second annual Spring shows.

The Art sessions wound up on Saturday and a pot luck supper, week-end visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Valentine and children, Ian and Michael, returned home Saturday after spending a holiday at a camp at Lake Nipissing, North Bay.

Mrs. K. Valentine who spent the past couple of weeks at a camp on Lake Nipissing, North Bay, returned home Saturday. Her daughter, Miss Lillian and Miss Mabel Karn of Montreal who were with her there, accompanied her home for a week's visit before leaving for Montreal this coming Saturday.

on Sunday, sponsored by the Haileybury - Cobalt Art Club concluded a wonderful week for the Artist Colony. The supper was served at the cottage of Mrs. Hoskings at Twin Lakes, where several artists took advantage of the beautiful surroundings for more paintings.

During the week some 40 paintings were completed by the Artists who thought Cobalt and its people were just wonderful.

Nine artists attended from Sudbury, Kirkland Lake, Noranda and one from Toronto. Great interest in art was shown by the local residents as many took the opportunity throughout the week to drop in to the local art studio to view the many paintings.

Mrs. Caroline MacArthur, President of the Haileybury - Cobalt Art Club would like to thank the citizens of Cobalt and district for their kind consideration to the artists and for the wonderful welcome they received.
