Cemetery Board Asks for Aid

G. Herbert, representative of the Haileybury Public Cemetery Board asked council last Monday night to provide a grant of $500.00 so that they might clear up their financial affairs.

This is the first time since the cemetery was established that the board has ever approached the council for a grant of this nature, but Mr. Herbert stated that the sale of plots in the cemetery has been unusually slow and that along with this the board is bound to keep up the plots whether or not the family has paid for perpetual care.

The board was forced to spend a substantial part of their funds this year to purchase three new lawn mowers, and unlike the Roman Catholic Cemetery in Haileybury, the caretaker is kept on throughout the winter.

Councillor N. Fleming asked, "If we make this grant to the public cemetery will we be leaving ourselves wide open to the Roman Catholic Cemetery board to ask for a grant?"

Councillor C. Camsal claimed that the Roman Catholic Cemetery would not necessarily be granted any money if they applied since they were a private organization.

Town Clerk Frank Haskett said, "There is nothing in the cemetery regulations providing for a grant."

Councillors voted that the matter be referred to the Cemetery Board and that if they were in agreement with the grant the council would provide it.
