Racing Auto Ends In Ditch

OPP Constable Hugh Wright from the Temagami Detachment had almost given up his chase of a speeding car Monday morning, when he rounded a curve and saw the vehicle in the ditch.

Constable Wright said the car passed him just north of Temagami travelling at a high rate of speed, and he gave chase.

He followed the speeding car to the Nipissing - Temiskaming line, and was about to give up the chase when he rounded a curve and saw the car in the ditch.

Driver James Mulryan of Timmins was hurled 30 feet when the car left the road and struck a rock. He received severe scalp wounds and was released after treatment in Misericordia Hospital.

His two companions, William Burden and Allan Dillabough, also of Timmins escaped injury.

Damages to the car are estimated at $500. Police say that charges will likely be laid. The accident is being investigated by Constable Dave Paul of the Haileybury Highway Detachment.

On Guard

If you give your kids milk, BEWARE. An outfit from Toronto is busy trying to sucker you into buying a glorified powdered milk blender, worth some $80, only it will cost you about $220.

Apparently the salesmen have been chased out of Toronto by Pierre Berton, columnist for the Toronto Star, who revealed the activities of the International Health Producers Company Limited.

The sales talk goes like this. "We will supply you with x pounds of powdered milk for y dollars per month and give you the free use of this blending machine necessary to do the mixing."

The unwary housewife who signs the innocent looking contract finds that she will be paying $200 or more for a machine she could have purchased for about $80, and the skim milk she purchased may be bought in her local stores for a fraction of the cost. In addition, skim milk, fresh from the cows, may be bought for 17c a quart from your dairy, and no expensive machine necessary.

There ought to be a law.
