

Fleming - Pennock

Mrs. Pennock was assisted by Mrs. Wm. V. Fleming, mother of the groom. She chose a dress of floral chiffon over faille taffeta with orange-ice accessories. Her corsage of white pinocchio mums was centred with a yellow rose.

For the bride's travelling costume, she chose a floral silk sheath with beige accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of delicate yellow roses.

Upon their return from the wedding trip to southern points, the newlyweds will reside in Haileybury.

Mrs. Roger Fleming was the guest of honour at four bridal showers during the month prior to her wedding. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. Hostesses for these showers were Miss Carol Bowes, Mrs. V. Walker, Mrs. Chester Coleman and Mrs. Gus Ayotte respectively.

Tri-town Miners Lose to Riders

Tri-Town Miners improved in their second game in the NORFU played in Haileybury on Sunday against the North Bay Rough Riders, but still lacked depth on the bench, and dropped the game 12-0.

The Miners best show was on defence, where they did a good job of holding the fast moving Riders, and twice they stalled a touch-down bid just yards from the line. Riders took three tries to push over their first score in the second quarter and had almost as tough a time in making the insurance touch in the last quarter.

The Miners best chance to score came in the last quarter when they tied together a series of passes to reach the eight yard line, and with two downs gone they gambled on a fake kick and pass which failed to click by inches.

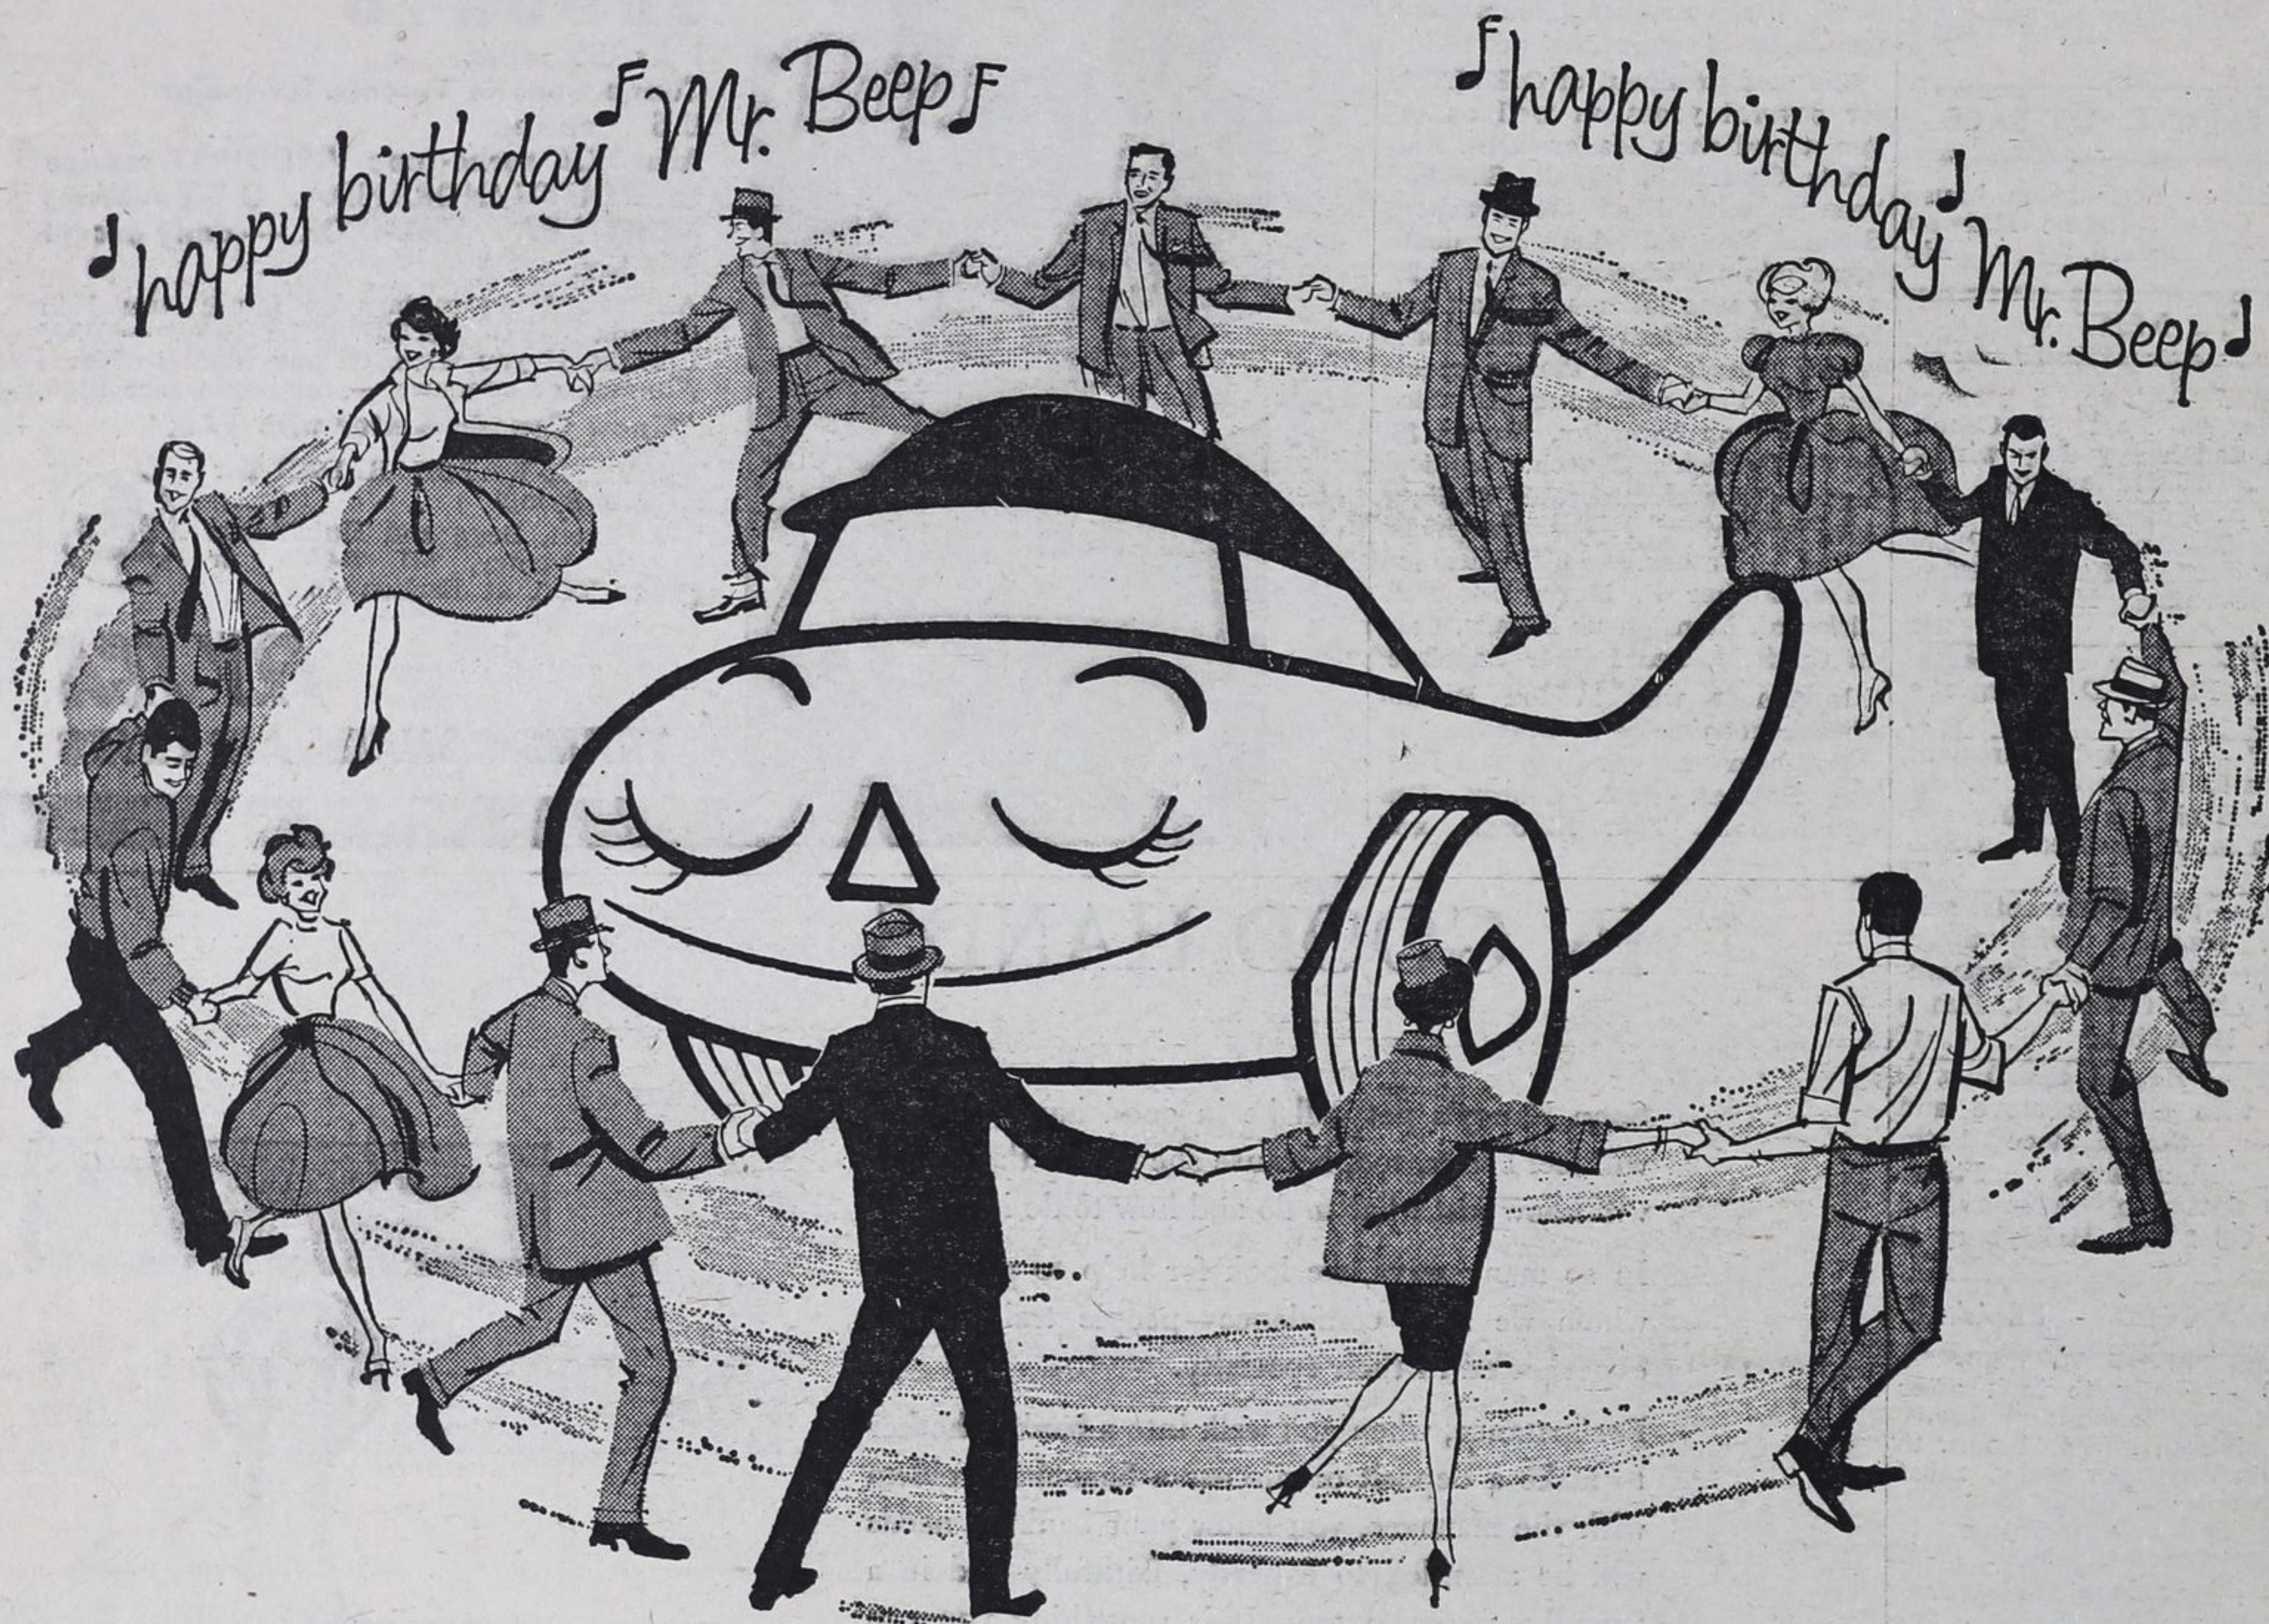

From there the Roughriders marched up the field to put the game on ice.

Check This Offer

If someone comes along and offers you a set of aluminum awnings, don't bite, until you have thoroughly investigated the offer.

Salesmen are in the Tri-Town district, and one resident phoned the Speaker to say that she had been offered a set of awnings free of charge . . . the salesman said he wanted to use it for an advertisement.

Nobody gets anything for nothing.
