

New Liskeard Legion Pipe Band was very much in evidence during the three days of the New Liskeard Fall Fair, leading the parade and playing a pibroch during breaks in the activities.

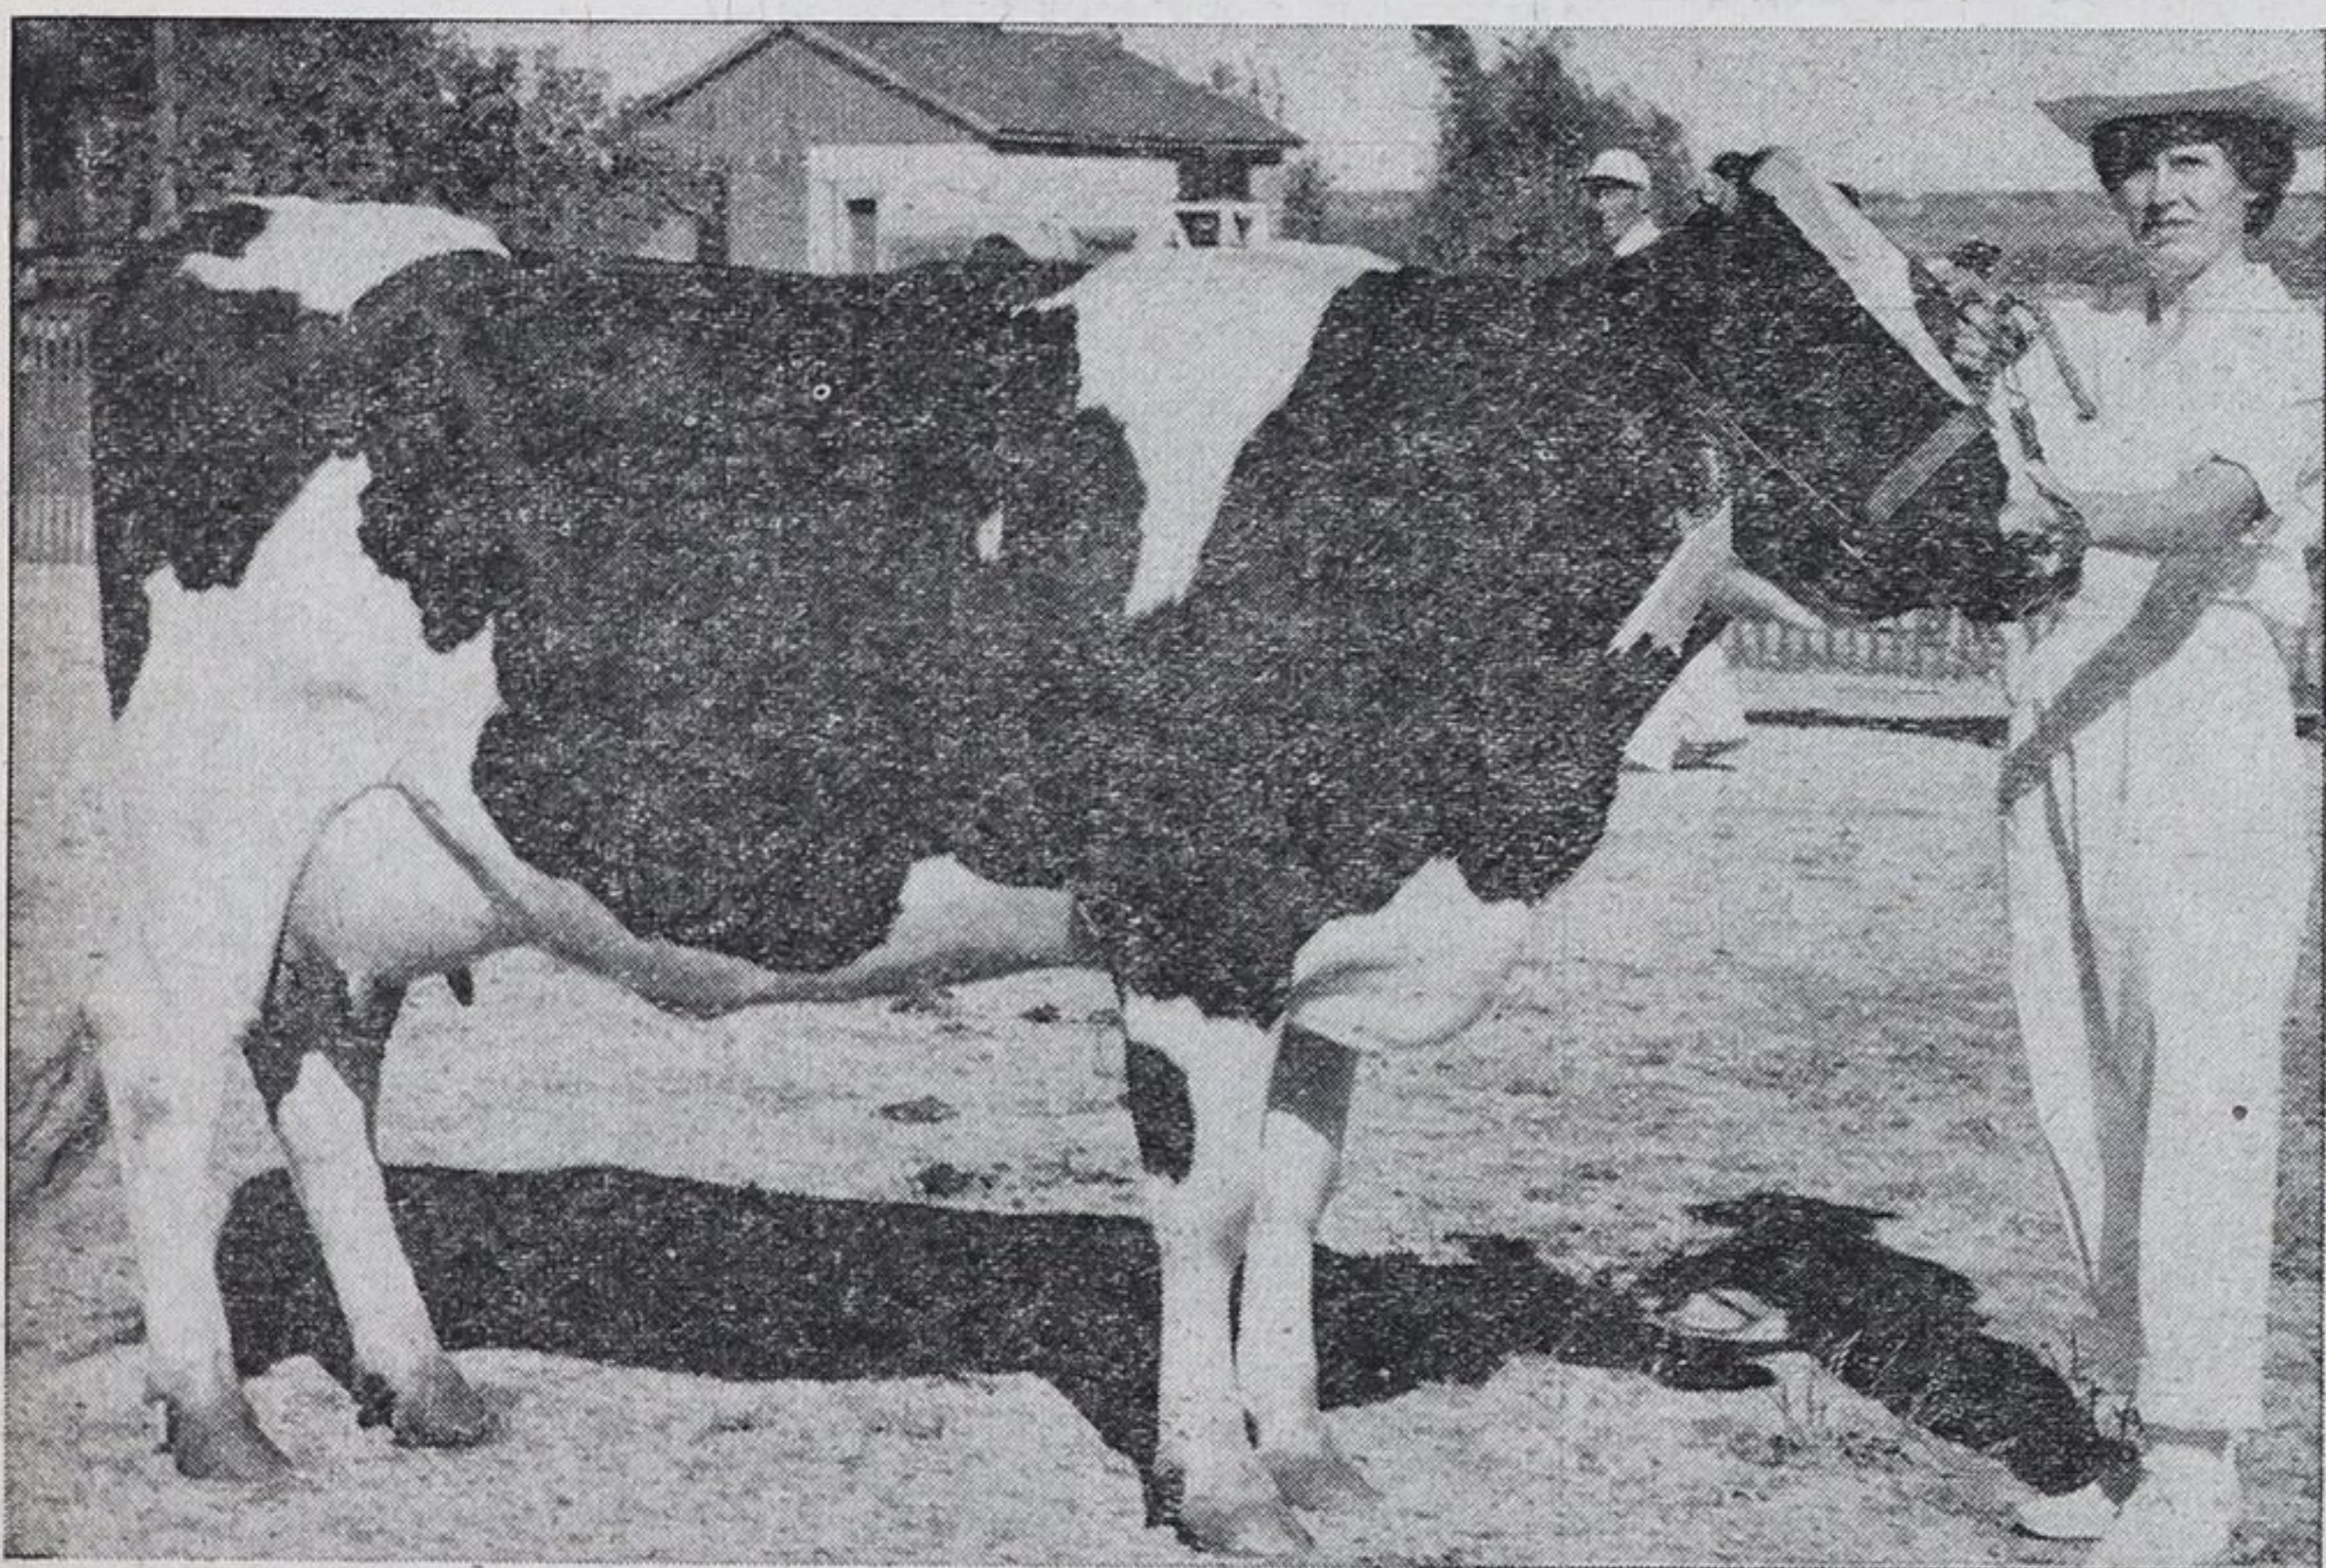

Another cowboy, with gun and spirited pinto adds color to the annual school parade at New Liskeard.

Leading the annual Fall Fair parade for another year was the well trained, attractively garbed Lionettes Majorettes.

Many People Take Part In New Liskeard Fall Fair

Miss Ruth Tucker has been an exhibitor at fairs since she was eight years old, and showed her first calf when she was ten. The show ring has no mysteries for this attractive young Miss, shown here with one of Rimlake Farm's prize winning H lsteins.

Two daring Zorro's or Zorresses left their white steeds in the stable and rode tricycles in the Fall Fair parade last Friday, and took part in the annual Children's Day.

Doug Mackey's Shetland ponies are perennial favorites at the fair, and were an important part of the Saturday parade in a smart turnout.