ing the loss of relatives. Flowers, gifts and cards had been sent. Sister Signe Kangas reporting for the C.P. & T. gave a gratifying report on the bingo and raffle which had been held recently and told of the decision to purchase another wheel chair. Communications were dealt with and filed away with plans made to accept the invitation of Lakeside Lodge in New Liskeard to join with them on the occasion of the official visit of the Assembly President. Under unfinished business, the second nominations for officers for the ensuing year were held. Sister Marie Greensides displayed materials to be made into articles for the fall bazaar which will be held on Friday, October 9. Several members thanked the Lodge and unknown friends for cards and gifts they had received and as all business had been completed Lodge closed in the regular form.

"Don't knock... Come right in"

says Mr. Beep

Yes — right in to a BP Service Station where you get this winter protection. First — a tankful of BP Super gasoline, specially refined to match the weather. Second — your engine filled with BP Visco-Static the multigrade all-weather motor oil. Third — the radiator filled with BP Antigel permanent antifreeze.

Then you're ready for any weather and no more knocking.
