

Haileybury Personals

Mrs. D. W. Atchison of Haileybury, Ontario, is among the guests at the Park Plaza Hotel this week, while visiting Toronto.

Mrs. Frank Simpson and children Stewart, Douglas, Patricia, Harvey and Andrew, who have been visiting Mrs. Simpson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, since last June, left last week for Palmerston to visit Mr. Simpson's parents. They will then go on to their home at Murdochville on the Gaspé Peninsula. Before leaving Haileybury, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Royce Cannel of Timmins and on their way south they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Bramer in North Bay.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Murray, who recently moved to Collingwood, will be interested to hear that they are now settled in their new home. Their daughter, Madelaine, lives with them and their son, James and his wife, are quite near them.

Corp. and Mrs. Keith F. Gagnon and children of Caledonia, were guests last week of Corp. Gagnon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gagnon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vannier were in Virginiatown last Sunday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Rodney Hamilton, Mr. Hamilton and their new grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lavigne are holidaying in Red Lake.

Mrs. J. T. McMahon is a patient in Misericordia Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Charbonneau and children of Rouyn, were recent guests of Mrs. F. Brazeau.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McInnes and children, Karen, Cynthia and Don, have returned after a holiday spent in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Whelan were in North Bay on Sunday, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ron Truchon. While there, they acted as god-parents at the christening of Mr. and Mrs. Truchon's little daughter, Nora Kathleen.

Miss Jane Hall, nurse-in-training at East General Hospital, Toronto, was a week-end visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hall.

With an average of .479, Peter Huard won the R. A. Morissette Shield for the highest batting average in the Haileybury town softball league, during the season just finished.

Exam Results At St. Mary's

The results of the Grade XIII examinations written at St. Mary's Academy show excellent success for the students. Of the 74 papers written, twelve received first class honors, twenty, second class honors, nine third class honors, twenty-seven passed and six failed.

In the violin class, Miss Francoise Caron obtained 86 per cent, which is the highest mark in the province in violin for Grades VII and VIII. She was awarded the Royal Conservatory medal, also the $40. Frederick Harris Scholarship for 1959. Both this gifted young musician and her teacher, Sister Jeanne-du-Sacre-Coeur, are being highly commended for their work.

Registration in September showed 142 boarding students in Grades 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, plus 85 day students.

The annual opening picnic was held recently and was a real joy for both former pupils and newcomers. Both the site and the temperature were ideal and after dinner in the open and a weiner roast supper by the lake, the pupils returned very happy.

Mission Band At United Church

St. Andrew's United Church Mission Band held their meeting last week with Mrs. W. Gagnon, the leader, in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Allan Green and Miss Ida Childs.

Several children's action songs formed the opening ceremonies. As this was the organization meeting the children were divided into classes according to their ages. The ages of the girls will be from six to seven and the boys, six to eight. Another church organization takes care of the boys over eight.

This year Africa will be the country used as study material.

A couple of games were played and cookies were served to the children at the end of the meeting.

Dumais - Roux

Autumn flowers decorated Holy Cross Catholic Church for the wedding of Jeannine Roux and Lucien Dumais, with Rev. Father Leblanc officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roux and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. Dumais, all of Haileybury.

Givin in marriage by her father, the bride wore for her wedding a gown of white nylon lace over taffeta, the floor-length skirt showing panels of lace and net, while the long sleeved jacket had a Peter Pan collar. Sequins and pearls were used to embroider the neckline and also as a halo to hold her fingertip veil. She carried a heart of red roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Doreen Batise as maid of honor, wore a strapless street-length frock of blue net over taffeta, with tiny Eton jacket and matching hat. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Grace Dupuis, wore pink net over taffeta with ruffled skirt and hat to match. Both attendants carried bouquets of pink roses with white baby mums.

The groom was attended by Leo Dupuis as groomsman and Lawrence Dumais of Bancroft as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Orange Hall at North Cobalt, where the guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing a dress of black nylon crepe with white hat and accessories. The groom's mother wore a light green suit with white accessories. Both ladies wore corsages of pink roses.

The young couple will make their home in Haileybury.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. L. Dumais, Bancroft, Mr. and Mrs. David Dool, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Willard, David Willard, Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. E. Boissoneault, Rouyn, Mr. and Mrs. Armand Boissoneault, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Laroche, Mr. and Mrs. Octave Laroche, all of North Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Beauchamp, Earleton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Willard, Thornloe, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Jackson, Belle Vallee, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dupuis, Toronto, Miss Grace Boissoneault and Miss Helen Dupuis, both of North Bay.
