Ruddy is the first member of the Cobalt Ladies Auxiliary to be married since it was formed in 1939. The President Mrs. P. Winks thanked members for cards and gifts she had received during her stay in hospital. A gift donated by Mrs. D. Moore was won by Laura Cole and Mrs. J. O'Rourke was the winner of a gift donated by Mrs. A. Lundberg. A social hour and lunch followed the meeting.

St. James W. A.

Mrs. W. Lonsdale was hostess of St. James Anglican Church W. A. when they met recently at her home on Commission St. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Isabelle Fildes, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. Moore. Minutes of the previous meeting read and roll call showed 12 members as being present. Mrs. E. Greensides reported having visited the hospital and taking gifts. Plans were made for a bake sale to be held in the vacant Nugget Office. A discussion on the bazaar followed and materials were handed out to the members. The bazaar will be at the Community Hall on October 23. A lovely lunch brought the meeting to a close.

St. Patrick Bingo

Mrs. A. Babineau was the winner of the door prize at the bingo held in the Legion Lounge on Friday, September 18, sponsored by the St. Patrick Church Parish. Other winners were 1. Mrs. A. St. Jacques, 2. Mrs. R. Larocque, 3. Mrs. F. Chapman, 4. Mrs. W. Jones, and Mrs. B. Othmer, 5. Mrs. J. Yanyk.

Fairbairn-Smith

A wedding of interest to Cobalt residents was solemnized at St. James United Church, Dartmouth, Nova Scotia on Saturday, September 12 at 3 p.m. when Evelyn Jane Smith daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith of Dartmouth, N.S., became the bride of Wayne M. Fairbairn of the R.C.N. Shearwater N.S. son of Mrs. Les Steele of Cobalt. Baskets of gladioli formed an attractive setting for the wedding at which Reverend MacDonald of St. James Church officiated. Mrs. Wm. Clarke, church organist presided at the organ and the soloist was Mrs. Baker of Woodside, N.S. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white Peau de soie cut on princess lines and with long sleeves. Her veil was shoulder length and she carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. Miss Dorothy Cross, cousin of the bride was maid of honour and the bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor Cross also a cousin and Miss Judy Mortson of Swastika, a cousin of the groom. They were gowned alike in street length dresses of bright blue peau de soie with lace bodices which featured big bows with hemline streamers from the V neckline at the back. They wore matching feather headdresses and carried white shasta daisies. Two little cousins of the bride acted as flower girls wearing coral peau de soie with matching bandeaux and carried baskets of shasta daisies. The best man was Bob Harrison of Saskatoon Sask., and ushers were Doug DeGaut and Eugene Briere. The bride's gifts to her attendants were earrings and the groom's gifts to the groomsmen and ushers were cufflinks. Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Church Hall where the bride's mother received the guests wearing a blue crepe sheath dress, white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother who also received, wore a figured tafeta sheath dress of lime green, lime green duster and beige accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations. The groom's grandmother, Mrs. Hugh Armstrong of Cobalt also received. She wore a dress of turquoise linen, with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. For her honeymoon the bride chose a beige wool sheath dress with matching coat, tan accessories and wore a corsage of bronze tea roses. On their return they will make their home at Dartmouth. In the evening a dance was

Train Late

Train services were badly disrupted Wednesday due to a wash-out on the track four miles north of North Bay.

The Northland which normally arrives in Haileybury at 4:20 a.m. did not arrive until 12:15 p.m. and No. 47 was reported as leaving North Bay at four p.m.

Dissatisfaction breeds progress.
