Val Chevette

Val Chevette, a former Haileyburian, was found dead on the trail leading to a partridge hunting area near his home in Cornwall on September 18.

Mr. Chevette was born in Haileybury and spent all his life here until he moved four years ago to Cornwall.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Margaret Laroque, and one daughter, Lucille of Ottawa. His sister, Mrs. Sid. Rouse, brother-in-law, J. R. Laroque and sister-in-law, Miss Germaine Laroque, went to Cornwall to attend the funeral which was held Tuesday, September 22.

Square Dancing

The Square Dance Club, organized six years ago, will be starting its Fall sessions next week in the Community Memorial Hall.

On Tuesday, September 29, commencing at 8 p.m., the club will meet in the Banquet Hall, and make plans for the Fall and Winter.

CIMM

The Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy will hold their first meeting of the current season in the Haileybury Legion Hall at eight o'clock Friday evening, September 25.

This will be a "Film Night" when through the courtesy of Canadian Industries Ltd., two films lasting approximately twenty-five minutes each, will be shown. The first, "Blasting Vibrations", is a description of blasting vibrations and the successful control of their effects in built-up areas. The second film is "Riders of the North Wind", and portrays the preparation for goose hunting on James Bay when Indian guides make decoys and then expertly call the wavering flights of geese to the hunters' lines.
