

Around The Square

Christo — Tasse

Autumn flowers decorated the Salvation Army Citadel in Cobalt when Lieut. Hetherington of Cobalt assisted by Rev. Churchill of Haileybury united in marriage Jeannette Hazel Tasse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Greening of Bancroft and Lloyd Albert Christo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edric Christo of Cobalt. The ceremony took place on Saturday, September 12, at 2 p.m.

Miss Merry Christo was soloist accompanied by Miss Nora Craven of New Liskeard.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Gordon Tasse, the bride looked lovely in her cocktail length gown of Brussels lace over satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline embroidered with seed pearls. A dainty seed pearl tiara held her fingertip veil of tulle illusion. She carried a bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley and white satin ribbon streamers. Mrs. Alice Shepherdson, an aunt of the bride was matron of honor wearing a cocktail length gown of ice blue crystallite, cut on princess lines with a v neckline and featuring a huge bow at the back of the waist. Her hat, which was trimmed with tiny flowers and gloves, were of matching blue. Her bouquet was of yellow and white mums and maiden hair fern.

Jim Connelly of Toronto was best man and ushers were the groom's uncle, Bud Christo and Ben Madill of New Liskeard.

Following the ceremony, a reception and dance was held at the Orange Hall in North Cobalt, where the guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing a brown ticcattina crepe dress, beige accessories and corsage of deep yellow roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who chose a dress of pastel blue Italian lace over taffeta, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The newlyweds left for a honeymoon to southern points and on their return will reside in Cobalt.

For travelling, the bride wore a blue floral sheath dress, with matching duster white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

dent Mrs. Keith Reid welcomed the ten members and two visitors who were present. Minutes for the previous meeting were read by Mrs. F. Cahill after which Mrs. Larocque gave the treasurer's report. The president reminded all those who had been knitting for the Children's Aid to finish the articles off so they could be collected. A discussion followed on whether to have a corn roast and it was decided not to. Gift of the month was won by Helen Mallett. Mrs. Keith Reid offered her home for the next regular meeting to be held on Monday, October 5. A game was played which was won by Mrs. Heaslip and a lovely lunch served by Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Cahill brought the evening to a close.

Silver Rebekah Lodge

Noble Grand Sister Agatha Cameron chaired the meeting of Silver Rebekah Lodge when they held their meeting in the I.O.O.F. Hall on Wednesday, September 23. Lodge opened in regular form and duties of officers were repeated. Routine business was conducted and reports were heard from the various committees. Vice Grand Sister Carrie Birch reported several members had illness in the family. Sister Signe Kangas reported that the C.P. & T were planning a bingo for October 1 to be held in the Community Hall. Sister Greensides reported that a gift had been purchased for Sister Muriel Tresidder. Noble Grand dismissed the committees with thanks. A number of Lodge members are planning to attend the dinner and meeting to be held in New Liskeard in October on the occasion of the official visit of the President of the Rebekah Assembly. Members were reminded of the Fall Bazaar to be held on October 9. Elections were held with a full slate of officers being elected, these to be installed at the next meeting. In the absence of Sister Tresidder, Sister Louise Richards read her report of the Rebekah Assembly which was held in Toronto in June.

It was decided to have a pot luck lunch following installation at the next meeting and Noble Grand thanked the members who had filled in for absent officers and as there was no further business, Lodge closed.

Cobalt Librarian Attends Book Fair

Librarian Mrs. Walter Fleming of Cobalt as well as librarians from Smooth Rock Falls, Cochrane, Schumacher, Virginiatown, Larder Lake, New Liskeard and Kirkland Lake attended the Book Fair that was held on Friday, September 26, in the Legion Hall in Kirkland Lake. Mrs. Fleming reported that it was a most attractive selection of the best books for all ages, fiction and non fiction, and in both French and English.

In conjunction with the Book Fair, the National Film Council showed films that could be booked through their council.

After the fair, a tea was held for the Librarians when they were guests of the North Eastern Regional Co-Operative Library. It was decided at this tea that a two-day course in Library Science would be held in Kirkland Lake on April 19 and 20. Chief Librarian Sam Neill, Kirkland Lake will instruct this course which will be available to non professional librarians and will include cataloguing, classification, book selection, reference work and the repairing of books. Mr. Neill stated that he would make this an Annual Course if it was found to be necessary.

O'Neill — Gareau

In a ceremony at St. Patrick's Church on Monday, September 14, Joanne Grace Gareau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gareau of Cobalt became the bride of John B. O'Neill, son of Mrs. O'Neill and the late P. J. O'Neill of Coniston. Shasta daisies and asters formed the setting for the double ring ceremony at which Father LaPointe of Haileybury officiated.

Genevieve Gareau, sister of the bride was soloist with Miss Evelyn Hurst as accompanist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a floor-length gown of white tissue faille over satin, cut on princess lines, with seed pearls trimming the neckline. A train fell from the shoulders to the hemline. A crown of lace, pearls and sequins held her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion and elbow-length lace gloves completed her attire. Her flowers were red sweetheart roses on a white Prayer Book from which fell white ribbon streamers with fern.

The bride's sister, Inez, attended her wearing a cocktail length dress of sapphire blue taffeta with stole effect collar. Her hat was of sapphire blue feathers and she carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Bernard Conlon of Coniston, the groom's brother-in-law, was the best man and the ushers were the groom's brother, Francis O'Neill of Coniston and Albert Robitaille of Cobalt, the bride's uncle and also her godfather. Young Tommy Conlon of Coniston, a nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. He wore a blue jacket, grey trousers and a white bow tie and carried a cushion of white lace bearing the rings for the bride and groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on the Nipissing Property. Mrs. Gareau received the guests wearing a dress of cocoa brown lace over satin, pink champagne accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. She was assisted by Mrs. O'Neill who wore a dress of blue crepe accented with beige, mink furs and beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill left for a honeymoon to Niagara Falls and points east. For travelling, the bride chose an olive green wool princess style dress, mink stole and brown accessories and her corsage was of tea roses. They will reside in Coniston.

The newlyweds received many congratulatory telegrams from relatives and friends, also a phone call from the bride's sister, Claudette in Nova Scotia.

Guests attended from Coniston, Sudbury, Jamestown, Noranda, Elliot Lake, Kirkland Lake and Copper Cliff.
