

Haston Club Elects Officers

The first meeting of the Haston 4-H Homemaking Club "Being well dressed and well groomed," was held on Friday evening, September 25th at the home of Mrs. George Dudgeon. Nine members and their leaders, Mrs. G. Smith and Mrs. G. Dudgeon were present.

The following officers were elected: president, Dianne Tessier; vice-president, Ileen Smith; secretary, Margaret Semple and press reporter, Isobell Barlow.

Members pamphlets were distributed and the check sheets filled in. Notes were taken by the members on "How a girl may keep herself attractive."

The girls practised taking measurements and making a matched patch.

Record books are to be started immediately.

Samples of materials and suitable patterns to be used in the unit were shown.

Miss Phippen will attend the next meeting which will be held next week at the home of Mrs. Campbell Semple.

Neil Logan

A resident of Rouyn-Noranda since 1932, Neil Logan passed away at the age of 74 years. He died suddenly at Carlson Mines Property, Copper Creek, as the result of a heart seizure. Mr. Logan was born near Lindsay, Ont., in Eldon Township. At an early age he moved to Cobalt and became interested in mining. He lived there until 1929, when he married Christiana Brown and moved to New Liskeard.

In 1932 he came to Rouyn-Noranda as an active prospector and resided there until his death.

Funeral services were held at the Houle Funeral Home in Noranda and Stoddart's Funeral Home at Woodville, Ont. Interment was in Smith Cemetery, Woodville.

THE SUPERLATIVE 1960 CHEVROLET

Here's new gem-bright beauty, room to sprawl in and sit tall in. New lean-muscle engine economy, new space and silence in the going. For fineness of features, for precise craftsmanship — for all the things that make a car good to own — the '60 Chevrolet stands alone in its price field.

If ever a car stood out from the rest of the crop, it's this '60 Chevy. From its clean-thrusting grille to its dapper rear deck, its styling is as fresh as a new-minted coin. You'll be just as wide-eyed over what's inside — the relaxing roominess, tasteful trim, hushed elegance, all comfortably cradled by Full Coil springs at all four wheels. And yet, you'll find new economy of operation, new dependability, new longer life. Here, truly, is the nearest to perfection a low-priced car ever came. Take to the road in the sparkling new sixty Chevrolet.
