Honorary Colonel of the Kentucky Derby," and presented her with a certificate. Naturally, this created a great deal of hilarious amusement, especially among the Canadians.

Saturday evening we went to the grand stands erected for the Music Festival that was coming to Edinburgh the following week, and heard a magnificent program of music by the massed Edinburgh Pipe Bands, followed by the playing of The Retreat.

After this we went to the Music Hall for the final Party and program of Highland dancing and singing. The Malayan delegates had brought six or seven dolls dressed in their national costumes and these were auctioned and brought in thirty-one pounds, over eighty dollars, for the Pennies for Friendship fund.

Finally back to the residence and a farewell around the fireplace in the Common room which lasted till long after midnight, exchanging final ideas and wishing new-found friends a safe journey home.

And so ended the ninth Triennial Conference of the Associated Country Women of the World, but the friendships made there will never end.

No Snow

The Cochrane Public Utilities Commission is able to supply quite a few different kinds of service, but recently it had to confess inability to help a visitor from the United States. He wanted sidewalks with six inches of snow, in order to test a machine for thawing sidewalks, and seemed to expect that Cochrane would be snowed in on the 21st of September.

Some inquiries were made for him about conditions in James Bay, but as he also needed electric power to operate his machine, he was not given much encouragement as to the likelihood of getting six inches of snow and an electric outlet in the same spot for a little while yet.
