

Haileybury Personals

Lieut. Robert M. Hetherington of the Haileybury and Cobalt Salvation Army Corps, has announced that the Red Shield Campaign for 1960 will be held May 2nd to May 31st, 1960.

Mrs. E. R. Erickson and baby daughter, Kim, left last week for Pittsburgh after spending a holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Glazier.

Guests at the home of Mrs. M. J. Foster over the week-end were Mrs. J. D. Foster of Ferris and Mrs. J. D. McDonald of Timmins.

Mr. and Mrs. John Belland have returned from Bracebridge where they were the guests of their son, Asquith and Mrs. Belland, for two weeks. Mr. Belland did some prospecting while away.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Budgeon have as their guest, Mr. Budgeon's mother, Mrs. A. J. Budgeon of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Devins, Christian Street, have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Albert Troll, of Beswyn, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wineland, Mount Blanchard, Ohio, Mr. Fred Keen, Mr. George Devins and children, Jim and Dianna, all of North Bay.

Celebrates Birthday And Anniversary

Members of the family and neighbours combined to provide a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Devins on the occasion of their forty-seventh wedding anniversary and Mrs. Devins birthday, which is the same as her wedding date.

The party was held at the home of their son, Verne, and Mrs. Devins and was attended by Mrs. Alma Ridley, Mrs. Lloyd Devins, Mrs. Lorne Fernholm, Mrs. Caron and other neighbors.

Mrs. Devins was born in Renfrew, Scotland, and came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hillcoat, to the Milberta area in 1905. She was married and farmed there for a number of years. They then moved to Toronto for eight years but came back to the north again. They spent the past fifteen years in New Liskeard, moving to Haileybury last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Devins have a family of four sons, George of North Bay, Verne and Lloyd in Haileybury and Stewart in Kirkland, and three daughters, Mrs. Alma Ridley, Haileybury, Mrs. Agnes Sherritt, New Liskeard and Mrs. Freda Soucie, North Bay.

They also have sixteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

New Officers for CGIT Group

The Northern Lights group of the C.G.I.T., who earned their chevrons last year, have started the new season with a bible study on the life of the Apostle Paul, under the guidance of assistant leader, Miss Jean Humphrey.

Beverly Childs is the new president, Susan Westlake, vice-president, Brenda Stringer, treasurer and Linda Quinlan, secretary.

The group meet Monday nights at seven-thirty. The girls all have new mystery mothers and are looking forward to finding out just "who is who".

A cook-out was enjoyed recently on the beach at the south end of the lakeshore. This was followed by a marshmallow roast and sing-song.

At the last meeting some Thanksgiving turkeys were made from pine cones. Another handicraft project was place cards made of marshmallows and jelly beans.

The meeting closed with Taps.

Mission Band At St. Andrew's

A new Mission Band, has been started in St. Andrew's United Church in Haileybury, under the leadership of Mrs. Joan Green, president, Miss Ida Childs, vice-president, Ann Olson, secretary and Norma Abraham, treasurer.

At the meeting last week the officers were installed by Mrs. E. Peacock. The children are learning their purpose and mission band hymn. At their meeting they made a drum which was used to call them to their Friendship Circle.

The study of Africa and the story of Boloji was begun. Now they are anxious to know if Boloji caught "that sneaky old hippo" in next weeks story.

The children are marching, clapping hands and learning to beat drums as the African children do and are becoming quite accomplished.

The meeting closed with the Tallis Canon hymn and they left for home munching cookies.

Gilkes - Labine

Holy Cross church, Haileybury was the scene recently of a pretty fall wedding when Noella Claudette Labine, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Labine of Ansonville, became the bride of Robert David Gilkes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilkes of Haileybury.

Given in marriage by Mr. N. Charbonneau, the bride chose for her wedding a street length gown of white embroidered nylon net over satin with scalloped neckline. Her fingertip veil of tulle was draped from a wreath of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book on which rested tiny red roses with white satin streamers knotted with lily of the valley.

Miss Helene Montreuil of Ansonville was maid of honour, wearing a street length dress of pink nylon and lace. Her bouquet was white mums.

Miss Lisette Grenier of Cobalt, as bridesmaid, wore pale green nylon sheer with bouquet of yellow mums. Both attendants wore feathered clip caps in colours to match their dresses.

The best man was John Hallworth of Port Carling. The ushers were Kenneth Gagnon of Hamilton and Clifford Hallworth of Haileybury.

Mrs. V. Runnell, sister of the bride received the guests at the reception which was held at the home of the groom's parents. She wore a dress of rose taffeta with black accessories. The groom's mother chose a dress of navy blue with white accessories. Both ladies wore corsages of white mums.

For a wedding trip to Western Ontario, the bride wore a suit of green wool with beige accessories and corsage of red roses.

On their return they will make their home in Hamilton.

Children's Service At Baptist Church

The Haileybury Baptist Church was beautifully decorated with flowers for a special children's promotion Sunday Service, September 27th. After the regular 10 a.m. Sunday School classes, the children gathered in the church auditorium as each teacher led her class through an arbour of flowers. Mrs. de Vries introduced the teachers and pupils to the congregation.

Mr. Gerry Kelly was welcomed as the new superintendent.

The teachers are as follows:- Nursery; Leslie Gagnon, assisted by Mrs. G. Kelly; Kindergarten, Mrs. D. Huff; Primary, Colleen Riley; Junior, Jean Wilson and Mr. D. Davidson; Intermediate, Mr. G. Kelly, Adults Mrs. W. Davis.

Second year seals were awarded to seven pupils who last year received Robert Rorkes attendance certificates.

Certificates of promotion were given to the children going into a new class.

In closing the service Mrs. de Vries spoke briefly on "How and Why God calls the Children."

Girls Auxiliary Starts Season

The Girl's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Anglican church held their first meeting of the season last week, opening with the singing of a hymn.

Following prayers and Bible reading, the election of officers for the coming year was held with Mrs. S. Horncastle in the chair for the election.

Barbara Humphrey was elected as president, with Sandra Hurteau as vice-president, Sandra Rutt, secretary; Ann Cavanaugh, treasurer. Vicki Gilkes and Karen MacPherson were named as the social committee.

The new president was in the chair for the business session during which it was decided the members would make nighties for their Dorcas work.

Items from the Syllabus of the annual Festival were looked at and further discussion will be held at future meetings.

The meeting was closed with prayer.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

OCTOBER 4th - 10th

To the Citizens of Haileybury:

We respectfully request that you devote a week to Fire Prevention. You should make a special review of your stoves and Furnace Pipe Connections to the Chimney to see that they are free from inflammable material; that your chimney, stove and furnace pipes are cleaned; your premises clear of combustible materials.

DON'T GIVE FIRE A PLACE TO START

Mayor, Arthur H. Cooke
