Peanut Blitz Complete Success

President Sam Hughes reported on the Rotary Club Peanut Blitz at Monday's meeting of the club. It was a complete success and those members who assisted in the sales as well as the citizens who bought the peanuts, were thanked by Mr. Hughes.

Guest speaker at the meeting was Robert Hoffman of New York City, author of the book "A Mile of Gold", which is a story of the early stages of mining in Northern Ontario.

Mr. Hoffman spoke on Uranium and its uses in connection with electrical power in mining. He was introduced by Fred Thompson and thanked by George Morissette.

Fred Le Gallais of North Bay was a visitor.

The usual sing-song was led by Darry Hogan with Miss Nancy Whitby at the piano.
