Christmas Party At Misericordia

Plans are being made for the entertainment of the staff and patients in the Misericordia hospital at the Christmas season. The nurses are putting a great deal of effort into a concert program and the annual staff party will be an event of Christmas week.

Last week a party was held in the hospital auditorium at which everyone was required to create a hat and model their own creation. Prize winners for these included Miss A. McDonald, Reg. N., Miss J. Boucher, Miss S. Manard, Miss C. Lafond and Mr. R. Rhinds. They also had a draw on a doll with Mrs. Pacaud of Latchford holding the winning ticket. Proceeds from this will be used for Christmas entertainment.

Those in charge appreciate very much the assistance of those who purchased tickets.

To The Editor

Dear Sir:

It would appear that the Canadian Legion has been lax in its public relations especially in the Haileybury area, and that some segments of the public have lost sight of the true purpose of the Canadian Legion.

To quote from one section only of the Legions General By-Laws dealing with the aims and objects of the Legion which are carried out by the active veterans through the medium of The Canadian Legions "quote" The Legion shall stand for strong and United Comradeship among all those who served in Her Majesty's forces through out the commonwealth, so that neither their rights nor their interests shall be forgotten and that their welfare and that of their dependents, especially the dependents of the disabled, sick aged and needy, may always be safeguarded", end of quote.

The public should also know that our poppy fund is the means of our being able to maintain our obligations, not only on remembrance day but to the sick and the needy through out the whole year and that those funds are replenished each year by the sale of wreaths and poppies.

I personally feel that the war dead would, if they could, feel honoured that the business firms and the people of the community are behind the Legion with this support to carry on in this manner of assistance to those left behind and would be proud to have those names mentioned.

This work that the Canadian Legion is doing alone in the north, is carried on in other parts of Ontario by many Veterans Clubs, in the Hamilton area up to fifty different Veteran organizations.

While I feel that the Legion is proud to be able to carry on this work, the work is supplied by those Veterans who have seen fit to join the Legion and work for same.

With regard to children removing their hats, I have only this to say, the time of year and weather conditions are the only detriments to this practice.

Many mothers go to great pains to see that their children's ears and heads are properly covered to avoid sickness and colds from exposure to the weather.

Yours truly,
Walter Hurst, Sec.

St. Andrew's Bazaar Has Xmas Theme

Miss Muriel Rice and Mrs. C. E. Peacock welcomed the guests as they entered the Sunday School room where the Womens' Federation of St. Andrew's United Church held their annual Christmas bazaar last Saturday afternoon.

Decorations accented the Christmas theme. The large tea table, covered with a cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of white Shasta mums and red candles, was most attractive. It was convened by Mrs. George Black and other members of the the group served the guests.

Mrs. G. Maddison was in charge of the popular produce table, Mrs. James Wilson had the candy table and Mrs. C. Lowery was responsible for the lovely assortment of aprons at that table.

Miss Cecilia Somerville looked after the "post office", Mrs. Rice convened the fish pond and Mrs. M. B. Glazier was in charge of the knitting and fancywork table. Mrs. G. P. Thoday sold "white elephants and the delicatessen table convened by Mrs. Lloyd Childs.

Affairs in the kitchen were kept running smoothly under the con- vnership of Mrs. C. W. Tyson.

Ice-boating is a popular recreation in several parts of Canada. There is a great deal of it along the lower Ottawa River, near Montreal. Some of the boats are smart and expensive looking, others are quite simple, homemade affairs.
