

Annual Skating Carnival Has Successful Showing

Spacemen invaded the New Liskeard arena Friday and Saturday nights and won the hearts of the audience, when the New Liskeard and Haileybury Figure Skating Clubs held their annual Carnival. The "Rocket House", gay balloons and the "Purple People Eaters", added to the mood.

The New Liskeard Legion Pipe Band played several Scottish numbers, giving the spectators a chance to warm up a bit by clapping of hands and stamping feet.

The very colorful "Rockets" were girls of the Intermediate class of the New Liskeard Club and following them was Miss Bonnie Keon, New Liskeard, as a lively high-stepping majorette. Then came the Flying Saucers, from the Junior class, twirling and turning, with Miss Susan Grant as "Blue Jet".

Haileybury Baby Satellites skated on in their colorful costumes, seeming quite delighted to be there. This was the pre-school class including Sharon Adams, Laurie Barry, Terry Brooks, Alican Boucher, Harriet Fleming, Pauline Johnston, Michael Martel, Lynn Martel, Celeste Milroy, Nora Murphy, Paul Palmer, Nora Robinson, Anne Sauve, Anna Sterba, Janice Thoday, Louise Vezina, Joet Watson, Karen McInnes, Dianne Savoie, Sharon Whalen, John Barry.

Mary Prentiss and Marianne Koniewich of New Liskeard in a number called "Little Bits of Sunshine", preceded the New Liskeard pre-schoolers as "Little Sunbeams".

The bright red costumes of the Haileybury Intermediates in "The Comets" number added to the theme. Skating in this were Jane Pringle, Rosemary Robinson, Mary Campbell, Pat Lowry, Sheryl Rouse, Anna Marie Roach, Willa May Black, Janet Cavanagh, Sue Cavanagh, Gail Gibson, Linda Gibson, Carol Davies, Leslie Stewart, Linda Quinlan. Following them was Miss Janet Camsall, Haileybury Bronze Medallist, as the "Sphere of Red", a clever and graceful solo number.

"The Northern Lights" were portrayed by nine Haileybury Juniors, Linda Cooper, Linda Taylor, Cathy Jane Crandall, Judy Hurst, Patsy Thoday, Denise Fleming, Gwen Buttle, Linda Bryson, Marianne Morissette. "The Stars" in gay costumes, were more of the same class of Juniors, Aline Parent, Sandra Mattice, Brenda Cooper, Ann Renault, Marlene Austin, Helen Johnston, Barbara Veale, Carole McLaughlin, Nora Burke, Rita Buttle, Margaret Bearsford, Leslie Sheepwash and Pam Wilson. A third group of the Juniors presented the "Clouds", looking cute and fluffy. These were Susan Palmer, Valerie Maddison, Debbie McLaughlin, Judy Watson, Margery Morissette and Vivian Garreau.

Miss Linda Grozelle as "Aurora Borealis" and Miss Barbara Camsell, "Queen of the Mist", both Haileybury Bronze Medalists, were charming in solo numbers.

Skating as "Blue Shadows" Miss Bonnie Keon and Miss Marielle Breault, New Liskeard, gave a beautiful performance. They are the Northern Ontario Senior Ladies' Pair Champions, 1959, Dutch Waltz Champions, 1958, Bronze Medalists, second, Test Bar, Bronze Dance Medal winners.

Tommy Binkley as the "First Man to Land on the Moon" and "The Moon Men" represented, in a weird array of costumes, the New Liskeard Juniors.

Guest star, Miss Carole Stoddart of Schumacher, Silver Medalist with 5th Test Bar, Northern Ontario runner-up Juveniles Ladies' Singles, 1958, Northern Ontario Junior Ladies' Pair Champion, 1959, Northern Ontario Junior Ladies' Champion, 1960, gave a very exciting and graceful performance.

The "Beatnik Ballet" with very authentic costumes and actions, although lacking in certain figures of skating, gave a hilarious few minutes of entertainment.

"Seven Little Girls" from New Liskeard, with Trudi Grant as "The Littlest Girl" were charming in a number called "Thank Heaven for Little Girls".

Both Haileybury and New Liskeard skaters combined to do "Belles of the Ball" in a lovely dance group which was greatly enjoyed.

The second Guest Star, North Bay's "Old Smoothie", Mr. Bud Courchesne, appeared with the Club Professional, Mrs. Chris Blair, in several clever numbers.

"Dogpatch Style" began with an excellent dance by "The Three Scraggs", Marion Plaunt, Karen McPherson and Vicki Gilkes, of Haileybury Intermediates, followed by Lil Abner and Daisy Mae, Mammy and Pappy Yokum, all of New Liskeard, all very true to form. "Flirty Gerty" a solo by Mrs. Blair, was a pert and sassy

The "Eligible Bachelors" Nancy Thoday, Margaret Menzies, Rosemary Robinson, Bettijane Mills, Joyce Menzies and Bonnie Binkley, were all decked out in their Sunday best to impress the "Marriage Minded Maidens", Linda Camsall, Diana Dean, Sheila Thompson, Ann Bryson, Trudy Wilson and Sally Walker, who were quite determined in their choice of bachelors.

Miss Linda Grozelle and Miss Barbara Camsall again delighted the audience with their "City Slickers" number.

Miss Carole Stoddart returned in a second clever and graceful performance which delighted the audience.

Skaters in "The Tri-Town Foliets" a precision number excellently performed and applauded loudly by the audience, were Georgia Murphy, Bonnie Keon, Mary Prentiss, Marianne Koniewich, Marielle Breault, Bonnie Herity, Susan Grant, Sharon Pettman, Carol Bond, Jackie Neal, Nora Brookfield and Janet Camsell.

At the conclusion of Saturday night's performance, Pamela Wilson and Judy Watson presented Mrs. Chris Blair and Miss Carole Stoddart with corsages.

Following this a reception was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fraser Farlinger for the guest stars, executive members and those who assisted behind the scenes.

Since 1900 Canada's gross national product has increased from $200 to $1,900 per capita; in the period average manufacturing wage has increased from 14 cents an hour to $1.70 an hour.

Haileybury High Presents Operetta Next Week

The operetta is here again. This year, as for the past seven years, Miss Keller and Mr. Cassidy have jointly produced an operetta, "Paradise Limited".

As the title might suggest, the setting is on a small island in the South Pacific. This island is Bongo Tongo, whose inhabitants are being wooed by the new fangled agency of "foreign aid". What the islanders did with this, and the results, therefrom, is the story to be told in this little offering.

Many well known characters are again participating in leading roles; for instance Allen Mikola, the well-known professor, who is this year playing a Russian "Sergee", Dave Black, the American agent, and Sally Whitby, the senator's daughter. There are, too, many newcomers to the stage, Lynda Grozelle, as a charming native girl; Bob Brown, as chief of the island; Real St. Cyr, as his able trouble-shooter; and Anne Olson as the senator's pretty secretary. Fern Belanger, who very appropriately plays the part of a Russian beatnik, sits in the corner with his hard-rock haircut, sprouting beatnik poetry. Miss Sandra Skeene is doing the choreography.
