First Year Courses Now at N. Bay College

A recent announcement of the Resurrectionist Fathers in North Bay indicates that in the long run Northern Ontario may be served by two universities, one at North Bay and the other at Sudbury.

The Congregation of the Resurrection, which operates North Bay college, announces that first year courses are being offered, starting September 1960.

By arrangement with all other Ontario universities, graduates of these first year courses will be eligible to enter second year courses at recognized universities.

The Congregation of the Resurrection has been quietly working since 1947 towards the establishment of a university in the North Bay area.

In 1947 a committee was formed and an initial study was made. The committee ceased to exist for a variety of reasons until 1957, when another committee was formed under the patronage of the North Bay Chamber of Commerce and the Northeastern Ontario Development Association.

After consulting with the department of education, the committee invited suggestions and proposals from various groups. In order to assist in the university movement, North Bay College, conducted by the Fathers of the Resurrection, agreed to establish a junior university and offer courses in first year arts, commerce and general science.

This proposal was accepted by the university committee, which pledged itself to assist North Bay college in the project. The committee was then enlarged to include 135 members and under a new constitution was organized as the Northeastern University committee with 90 Protestants and Jews and 45 Roman Catholics included in its membership. Its aim is to assist and advise the Fathers of the Resurrection in establishing immediately a junior university with an ultimate goal of developing in the North Bay area, as soon as possible, a federated inter-denominational university.

Proceeding with its first aim of establishing a junior university, the Northeastern University Committee in co-operation with North Bay College, obtained the approval of the department of education for Ontario and of all universities in the province.

The North Bay college was established in 1931 to conduct courses on the high school and college level. It obtained a college charter (non-degree-granting) in 1934.

It is built on 26 acres of ground at the north end of North Bay and consists of four modern buildings with classroom and laboratory facilities, a chapel, gymnasium and residences.

Male students may board and lodge in the college buildings. Women students will find accommodation available in North Bay.

Courses in first year arts, commerce and general science will be offered for the first time in 1960. These courses are open to high school graduates with the required grade 13 standing. The courses will be open to men and women regardless of race, color or creed.

Students who are not of the Roman Catholic faith will not be obligated to take part in Roman Catholic services. If there is sufficient demand, a course in religious knowledge for Protestants will be provided.

While the courses in philosophy and psychology are not religious in content, students will not be obligated to take them providing suitable substitutes are taken.

For a short time it will be possible to provide only first year courses. As soon, as the need arises, and the enrolment warrants it, the first year will be expanded to the full university course.

A number of scholarships and bursaries are available for students who wish to study at the North Bay college. Enquiries concerning them should be addressed to the Registrar.

Zone Meeting for Haileybury Legion

Haileybury Canadian Legion, Branch 54, will be hosts at the Zone meeting being held in Haileybury on April 1.

Representatives from Branches from Englehart on the north to Temagami on the south, Matachewan and Elk Lake are expected to attend.

Ladies of Ste Anne Assist Parish Bingo

COBALT — The 8 a.m. mass at Ste. Therese Church was well attended by the ladies of Ste. Anne on Sunday, March 20. The ladies received Holy Communion as a group.

They met again at the church at 7 p.m. for Night Prayers and the Blessing of the Holy Sacrament.

A short meeting was held in Ste. Therese school following the church service.

The meeting opened with the regular prayer which was conducted by the President, Mrs. T. Belanger. Twenty-one members answered to the roll call.

Quite a few members were absent due to illness and one member, Mrs. B. Giroux is very ill in the Haileybury hospital.

A letter was read from the League to hold their bingo on March 31.

The secretary, Mr. J. Brisson also thanked the women for the wonderful co-operation that exists between the two organizations.

It was decided to assist the North Cobalt Parish with a draw which will take place in North Cobalt on June 9. There will be $500.00 worth of prizes drawn for at this time.

Plans were also arranged to have a bingo in the Cobalt Community Hall on June 2. There will be no meeting in April as the regular meeting date falls on Easter Sunday.

Catholic Women Hold Bake Sale

COBALT — Mrs. Albert Riley, president, welcomed the guests who attended the St. Patrick's Day Tea and Bake Sale on Thursday, March 17, in the Cobalt Community Hall, sponsored by the C.W.L. of St. Patrick's Church.

Green and white streamers and 'Irish' motifs gave the hall a very gay look. Convener for the tea was Mrs. C. O'Shaughnessy.

An attractive low arrangement of green and white carnations centred the tea table at which Mrs. M. J. Cunningham presided. An ecru lace cloth, sprigged with green shamrocks covered the table and two black wrought iron candelabra, each holding three slender green tapers and silver appointments completed the setting.

Lovely little Irish Colleens, with bright pig tails, green skirts and lacy blouses graced the individual tables that were set around the room for the convenience of the guests.

Mrs. G. Smith, Mrs. L. Cunningham, Mrs. J. Damiani, Mrs. D. Thompson and Mrs. H. A. Dunning waited on the tables.

Mrs. A. Murphy and Mrs. P. Shannon were in charge of the great variety of tempting candies that were sold. The bake table was looked after by Mrs. H. Ramey and Mrs. R. Mercier and Mrs. R. Jones had the apron and fancy work table.

Tickets were available on the draw for the chair. Mrs. B. Conroy, Mrs. J. Caulfield and Miss G. Murphy handled these. The draw on the chair took place at the bingo in the evening and Mr. J. B. Maher was the lucky winner.

Tickets were also sold at the tea for the flower centrepiece, Mrs. R. Tessolini held the winning ticket for this.

Mrs. C. Vezina, Mrs. C. Ramsay and Mrs. M. Sutherland took charge of kitchen duties. A small table draped with a colourful linen cloth which had been sent from Ireland held the "tea bowl" which was a black silk top hat. Placed beside this was another souvenir of the Emerald Isle, a genuine shillelagh.

Four New Books At Library

Mrs. Graham, librarian at the Haileybury Public Library has announced that four new books have been added to the shelves. They are "They Were Defeated", by Rose MacAulay; "Sing Out the Glory", by Gladys Hasty Carroll; "The War Against the Rull", by E. A. Van Vogt; and "The Exploits of Tommy Hambledon," by Manning Coles.

These are only four of the many excellent books available for readers at the library.
