Mr. and Mrs. G. Cassidy On European Tour

Brigadier and Mrs. G. L. Cassidy left for New York Tuesday evening and will sail from there July 8 for Great Britain. After spending some time with Mrs. Cassidy's mother at Westward Ho in Devon, they will return to London for several days before going on to the Continent.

Following a short tour through France and Switzerland, they will go to Munich and Heidelberg, enjoy a boat trip down the Rhine to Cologne and then go to Le Havre where they will rent a car and retrace the route followed by Brigadier Cassidy's regiment, The Algonquins, during the last war, going through Northern France, Holland, Belgium and Northern Germany.

They will visit the grave of Mrs. Cassidy's brother, Pilot Officer George Vicary, at the British Cemetery at Cleve, Northern Germany.

Despite the flooded conditions at the beach, the sulkies and their high stepping horses managed to kick up some dust on the race course last Friday. This action shot was snapped during the first heat of the second race, but the horses were going too fast to get their names.

Cobalt - Coleman P. S. Graduation Exercises

COBALT — Cobalt-Coleman Graduation Exercises were held at the Public School on Tuesday, June 28, 1960.

Following the singing of 'O Canada', Bonnie Mallett played the accompaniment of soft background music for a very lovely choral Bible reading of Psalm XLVI by Grades seven and eight.

Doreen Draper then played for the singing of a group of songs selected to show pride in God, School, Town and Country. These were 'This is My Father's World', 'Our School Will Shine To-Night', 'The Cobalt Song', with the audience joining in for the choruses and 'O Canada'.

Principal D. McGugan introduced H. A. Todd, representative of the School Board, who in his address to the Graduates stressed the importance of remaining in school and completing their education, thus building a firmer basis for their future lives and a better understanding of their fellow man.

The presentation of trophies then took place. Laurel Birtch presented the Legion Track and Field Trophy to Mr. McGugan and the School. The Softball Trophy awarded by the Tri-Town Drive-In Theatre was won by the Public School. This was presented to Mr. McGugan by John Reid. The Boy Championship Track and Field Trophy was awarded to Paul Saxton.

Religious Education Awards were received by Frances Parcher and Barbara Allingham. Reverend H. L. Wiprecht presented these.

Marilyn Mathews, with 91%, was awarded the Lion's Club Jane Mathews Memorial Trophy for Grade 7 girls. Allan McGugan received the Lion's Proficiency Shield for Grade 7 boys.

The Fulton Purdy Trophy for the Best All Round Athlete in Boys sports was presented by Mr. Purdy to Laurel Birtch. One of the newer trophies, the R. J. Miller Trophy for Proficiency in English was presented by Mr. Miller to Doreen Draper who had 100 in Grammar, 95 in both Spelling and English and 96 in Composition.

In presenting his award, Mr. Miller said that the motivation behind this award is the importance of English and that English is the keynote to success in life.

Harry Cooper, representing the I.O.O.F. made the presentation of the I.O.O.F. Scholarship and Trophy to Paul Saxton. Mrs. Carrie Birtch presented the Rebekah Scholarship and Trophy to Doreen Draper.

Class Valedictorian Lynda Houshank thanked the Home and School for the encouragement given in sports and co-ordinating the work of parents and teachers; the School Board for building the lovely new school and arranging the educational trips; and the parents for the care and patience given them during the school years.

A 'special' thanks was given the teachers who through all the grades were always ready with their invaluable help and assurance, making this day possible. Lynda ended her address with "May we never forget the school Motto—C.C.P.S., which stands for Courage; the courage to face the future with a clear mind; Courtesy; courtesy in our manners towards the Staff and others, Perseverance; perseverance to do that Math problem over and over again until it is correct, following out the well-known proverb "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again", and finally Sincerity; sincere in our efforts to do a good job to the credit of our school.

R. J. Miller, Principal of the High School also gave a short address to the graduating class, beginning with a few nostalgic remembrances of 1926 and his own graduation, going on to tell the graduates the importance of staying in school.

He also told them they should try the general course of study for a year or so before specializing.

Graduation certificates were awarded to Carol Pickard, Rennie Purdy, Barbara Allingham, (Honours), Curtis Ewing, Doreen Draper, (Honours), James Wilson, John Reid, Paul Saxton, (Honours), Lynda Houston, (Honours), William Ross, Linda Cooper, Laurel Birtch, William Pickard, Frances Parcher, (Honours), and Wilfred Giovanella.

Certificates were presented by Miss Lois Jewell, who eight years ago joined the Cobalt-Coleman Public School Staff and had most of this years graduates as pupils, Mrs. Reid and Mr. McGugan.

In presenting her certificate to Doreen Draper, Mr. McGugan announced that Doreen's 97% was the highest that he had ever passed on to High School.

After the Graduates received their certificates, Mr. McGugan gave a talk on 'How to Please A Teacher'.

He said that the Grade Eight teacher usually takes the credit for the Graduates but that each student has a little bit of each teacher ingrained in him or her.

On behalf of the Grade Eight Students, gifts were presented to Mrs. Reid by William Parker, Mr. Gillan by Linda Cooper, Mrs. McPherson by William Ross and Mr. McGugan by Carol Pickard.

At the conclusion of the Graduation Exercises, a buffet supper was extended to the Graduates and Guests by the School Board; catering was done by the Home and School Association. The Home and School sponsored an evening party for the Grade Eight pupils.

The sable, whose beautiful fur is highly prized, is a marten. It is closely related to the pine marten and has much the same habits. It is found in the forests of northern Asia, especially in eastern Siberia and in Kamchatka. It is about twenty inches long from nose to root of tail and the tail adds another seven inches. A single sable skin has been known to cost more than $2,000.

New Uniforms

North Cobalt's volunteer Fire Department took part in the July 1st tournament at Rouyn. Smartly attired in new uniforms the volunteers put on a good show.

Their uniforms were saved for them Wednesday, when an alert ONR employee, Ben Heaslip, rescued them in a heavy downpour at the Cobalt station.

The bottom of the cardboard box fell out as the express was being unloaded, and the uniforms were getting a thorough soaking when Mr. Heaslip deserted his telegraph key to effect a rescue.

The volunteers' wives did a little pressing and cleaning, and the uniforms were as good as new.

Luncheon At Golf Club

The ladies' section of the Haileybury Golf Club are holding a luncheon at the Club House on July 8, at 1 p.m.

Following the luncheon the Qualifying Round for the Jackson Cup will be played. It is hoped that at least twenty of the playing members will enter this competition.

other publicity material to be used in the continuous promotion of Northeastern Ontario through publication of magazine and newspaper articles.

In addition to undertaking their specific duties of economic studies and publicity work, these two men will also be active in the organization and administration of the zones. It is anticipated that after a familiarization period in the association office one of the new men will live in the northern section of the region and the other will live in the western area. This would make possible a much closer liaison between the Association and its many members.
