Legion Notes

BRANCH 54

Executive members of Haileybury and Cobalt Legions have nothing but high praise for the comrades who assisted at the funeral of the late A. R. Herbert.
Honoring our departed comrade Bob Herbert, over 40 members from the two branches stood guard at the bier, from Saturday through until Monday, with guards changed by the sergeant-at-arms every 20 minutes.

On the day of the funeral a guard of honor with 30 men attending were at the church and the graveside. All presidents from Zone K1 were present. Comrade Zone Commander J. Clancy was also present and prayers were taken by comrade District Commander J. Mavrincac.
A special meeting will be held, Sunday July 10, 2 p.m. The main item of business to plan for a picnic and to decide whether to recess for the summer months.

Several work parties have been busy making necessary repairs to the hall, and the dances will be resumed on July 16. All Legionnaires and their wives should plan to attend these dances. Everyone has a lot of fun.

At the last executive meeting the members discussed the building of a horse shoe court beside the hall. It was decided that no money had been set aside for this purpose and no funds were available at the moment. Possibly some of the comrades interested in the game would like to form a work party, and see if the work could be done on a volunteer basis, with the understanding that those who work can play.

"Father of the Blues"

The famous composer of Memphis Blues and St. Louis Blues, William Christopher Handy, followed a musical career despite the strong objections of his family. His father, a leading Methodist minister, was horrified when William bought a guitar after months of saving. He made the boy exchange it for a good dictionary!
