O'Shaughnessy -

Whitby

St. Patrick's Church in Cobalt was decorated with white gladioli for the wedding last Saturday of Miss Mary Eleanor Whitby and Dr. Terrence Charles O'Shaughnessy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Whitby of Haileybury and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo James O'Shaughnessy of Cobalt.

Reverend Father Jeffrey officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in white silk organza over taffeta with chantilly lace applique embroidered in pearls. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl coronet. She carried a bouquet of white orchids with stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were Miss Sally Whitby, a sister, who was maid of honor; and two bridesmaids, Mrs. John Smith, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Tom Kennelly, sister of the groom.

They were dressed in full skirted pomme green organza over matching peau de soie sheaths with peau de soie cummerbunds held in place with organza flowers. Their picture hats repeated the cummerbund motif and they carried bouquets of white carnations with button mums and stephanotis.

The bride's mother was dressed in cameo pink and chiffon with draped skirt, matching orchid corsage and matching flowered hat. The groom's mother wore flowered green organza, white accessories and orchid corsage.

Lawrence Hurst was the soloist while Mrs. J. A. H. Joyal of Haileybury played the organ. John Steers was best man, and Glen McKinnon, Tom Kennelly and Leo O'Shaughnessy, Jr., were ushers.

A reception was held at the Haileybury Golf Club, attended by more than fifty guests from a distance as well as many local residents.

Leaving for a honeymoon trip through the province of Quebec, the bride wore an arbor green print dress topped with a plain matching duster coat and white accessories.

The couple will reside in North Bay, where Dr. O'Shaughnessy is a dentist.
