

Across the Kitchen Table

By MRS. MAC

Congratulations go this week to 30. Sam Craig, who, on July 16, celebrated his 84th birthday. Mr. Craig is one of the North's early pioneers and can recall many interesting events that have happened since his arrival here. He is still interested in gardening and his neighbors say that his is the best garden in the neighborhood.

Last Sunday, my daughter, her husband and two boys, came from Englehart and took my aunt and I and Mrs. Cameron from Cobalt for a drive to the Old Mission and then away out the Silver Centre Road, where we had a grand picnic lunch. When we came back to New Liskeard, we went to the hospital to see my husband, then to Cobalt with Mrs. Cameron and stopped for a few minutes to see Peter Ewen. It was a lovely day and we all thoroughly enjoyed ourselves.

I've had two phone calls from my other daughter, who, with her husband and family, is on a holiday trip through the States. The first one was from Chicago and the Monday night call from "way down in Tennessee". She said when they left Memphis that morning the temperature was 110, but she was quite sure that in the booth she was phoning from, it was 150!
