Real Forget

Funeral services were held from Holy Cross Church Wednesday morning, August 3rd, at ten o'clock for Real Forget, son of Mrs. Aline Forget and the late Mr. R. Forget, with Rev. C. Lapointe officiating. Real, who was attending St. Joseph's College at Alfred, near Ottawa, was struck by a bat thrown by a player in a ball game in which he was taking part, causing an injury which resulted in his death.

He was born in Earleton on October 16, 1947, and had lived in Haileybury for the past eight years.

He is survived by his mother, three sisters, Mrs. Fern Demel, Haileybury, Mrs. Yvonne Deforge, North Bay, and Julie, at home, and nine brothers, Daniel, Ernest, Gerry, Paul, Armand, Joseph, Rosaire, Sylvio and Benjamin.

Acting as pall-bearers were six of his brothers, Daniel, Ernest, Gerry, Paul, Joseph and Armand.

Interment was in the Haileybury Roman Catholic Cemetery.

Small car fans turned out in strength for the small car roдео at Haileybury. The car above is being driven by Keith McPherson, while Maurice Findlay watches.

The kickboard races were popular among the younger crowd at the New Liskeard beach. Both the Tri-Town meet Wednesday and the Lions meet Monday were well attended.

One of the highlights of the Temagami summer regatta was the navigation race up to Bear Island and back to Inlet Bay, a course of 35 miles over dangerous waters. Shown above is the boat and crew from Wabi Gon Camp who completed the course in fifty eight minutes, a four minute lead over his closest competitor. This boat was propelled by a seventy Mercury.

Scott - Phippen

Port Sydney United Church was decorated with roses and delphinia for the recent marriage of Laura Evelyn Phippen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Phippen of Huntsville and John William Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Scott of Huntsville. Rev. John Robson officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of white cotton eyelet over pale blue taffeta, with eyelet mitts to match. She wore a small hat of material to match the dress and a shoulder length veil. Her flowers of pink roses and white stephanotis blue taffeta with navy accessories, were in a cascade arrangement.

Bridal attendants Misses Sandra Phippen and Sally Blackburn wore similar gowns of white cotton eyelet over deep and medium blue, with sashes and a large bow at the waist. Their large brim hats had no crowns and were of material to match the dresses. They carried cascades of pink and white carnations and babies' breath.

The groom's attendants were Fred Scott, John McDonald and Peter Ward.

About 90 persons attended the reception held in the Community Hall at Port Sydney. For the occasion the bride's mother chose a gown of powder blue nylon sheer over her corsage was of yellow roses.

She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a black linen gown with white embroidered pattern, white collar and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

For a wedding trip to Temiskaming District the bride chose a one-piece dress of white silk with black pattern, a large white collar and white accessories. The couple will reside at Spring Bay, Manitoulin Island.
