Across the Kitchen Table

By MRS. MAC

The Pioneer's picnic held Wednesday at the New Liskeard Beach, brings to mind a flood of memories of the days that are gone. I have a great many memories of the fifty-seven years I have spent in Temiskaming and most of them are good ones, the kind one likes to bring out and dust off quite frequently. My schooldays, sleighriding parties, snowshoeing, visits to the home of "Uncle Tom", the kindly old white bearded Englishman for whom the village of Tomstown was named and who was always willing to share his English papers and magazines with a girl who would rather read than eat, any day; the little old log church with its procession of Queen's college students year after year; the dances at the country homes, when we thought nothing of driving ten miles (with horses and a sleigh or wagon, not a car), and dancing half the night. My marriage and starting our first home; the joy of our children, first as tiny tots, then growing up to take their place in the world and make their own homes, and finally, the grandchildren.

Yes, life has been good to me and will be better still when my husband is well enough to get out of the hospital and come home again.

Speaking of grandchildren, (and I'm quite often speaking of mine!) Tuesday night my oldest one was driving me home and he casually remarked, "Nan, what kind of perfume have you got? I said, "Can you smell it?" because I had only used a tiny little dab of it. His answer was, "I sure can, strong and free." Then he wanted to know what the name of it was and when I told him "Shanghai", he said, "Well, it's high, all right." When my children and grandchildren are around, I can always be certain of "seeing myself as others see me."

Student body grows: At December 1, 1959, the full-time university enrolment in Canadian universities and colleges was 102,000, up 8.1 per cent in a year.

The Salvation Army endeavours to meet a need at a time of need — at the point of need.

News from the Evelyn Shoppe

With everyone on the wing these days, Fashion decrees Continental shaping in wool flat knits. Superb Continental flair and drama translated for the Canadian woman. These timely arrivals can be ROLLED UP and emerge without a wrinkle! No wardrobe is complete without one of these incomparable Knits.

Among the Austrian knits, one we like is a three-piece cardigan type, with collared jacket. Another Italian knit is a Lombardi with round necked overblouse top and loose Chanel jacket in deep burgundy. One in the popular mocha shade has a buttoned jacket and striped overblouse top. All these have plain skirts. A two-piece box style, English import by Wolsey, comes in the new Blue Fir shade. One could feel well-dressed at all times in any of these handsome suits.

A stunning coat and dress by Gero of Paris in soft violet, is perfect both for now and later on. (See our window.)

For those of you who are looking for something to bridge that gap into autumn, we still have a good selection of dark Transition cottons.

A shipment of the new tunic blouses in geometric patterns, with tie, in gold, green and deep blue, is just in. We still have a number of good buys in coats and suits, clearing at half price or less. We MUST make room for fall merchandise that is arriving daily.

Square Dance Club

On Wednesday evening, August 3rd, a meeting of the Square Dance Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. Frey.

A program for the fall season was planned. A twelve week beginners course will commence on September 12th. This will be a free Fun Night, with final registration on September 19th.

This course will include instruction in square dances, round dances, contra dances and ballroom dancing featuring Cha Cha, jive, Tango, waltz and foxtrot.

The Callers Workshop which is to be held in Haileybury September 30th was also discussed at length.
