Who's To Blame?

Driving past the Misericorde hospital at Haileybury, we noticed that there has been no improvement in the condition of the adjacent roads.

One trouble seems to be a conflict between the Department of Highways and the Municipality about who is responsible for making good the damage that was done some time ago when traffic was diverted off Highway 11 and through the streets that run along the side and front of the hospital.

Irrespective of who is to blame, the dusty and gravelled roads should be repaired before winter makes paving impossible. From the economic point of view alone, the hospital's payroll exceeds some $300,000 a year, and it would seem to be entitled to some consideration from the municipality.

News from the Evelyn Shoppe

The explosion of color this season is fantastic and makes everyone feel that they simply MUST have something new in one, or two, of these exciting shades. The vibrant Persian blue, lichen to emerald and sage greens, walnut browns, hickory tans and greyer beige, violet to plum tons, are all to be found in the huge stock of sweaters at Evelyn's. And who ever had enough sweaters in their life! These beautiful sweaters come in mohair, Shetland and lambs wool, cashmere and angora mixtures, (also Hi-bulk orlon that looks and feels like wool) and in such well-known makes as Jantzen, Wolsey, Lansea, Glenayr Kitten, Paris Star and many others. The prices of these sweaters will amaze you, starting with the Cashmeret at $6.98 up to 8.98.

Then we have many skirts in shaggy mohair and wool and tweed combinations to match or blend with the sweaters. You will be surprised at the quality and styling of these, some of them as low as $7.98.

The more adventurous of you will want to try the Culotte or Bermuda skirt, just barely covering the knee. Incidentally, we are told that the dye shops are doing a big business dyeing the girls white buck shoes to match their sweaters or skirts.

The knitted theme is carried over to the dress section. Whenever or wherever you wear it, the knitted dress or suit is here to stay. It is the perfect traveller, (no pressing problems when you unpack). A few numbers are in, of David Crystal Dresses, as shown in the September issue of "Harpers Bazaar".

Another fashion highlight is the "Thirty-sixer" an exciting new casual coat in the imported fabric, "suedella" a soft new sued-like material, wide wale corduroy or Dutch Trekker cord, camel-tex and mohair and wool blend. Many with orlon pile lining, that place these sports coats in the luxury class at such modest prices.

Across the Kitchen Table

By MRS. MAC

Time is marching on and all signs say that summer(?) is gone and autumn is here. Some of those signs are, fall fairs finished, school fairs too, the leaves are turning and flying off with the wind and a perfect rash of autumn weddings are upon us. Speaking of school fairs, last Friday I was at the Milberta school fair where pupils from three schools bring their exhibits. I used to attend every year, to judge some of their classes, but for the past few years, the fair has been held on Tuesday or Wednesday, when I can't leave the office. However this year it was on Friday and through the kindness of Mr. Napper, I was able to attend. With Mrs. Christianson to assist me, I was given the job of judging the baking, the sewing and part of the flower class. By the time we had finished sampling the twenty-three entries in maple cream candy, fifteen in uncooked peanut butter cookies, oatmeal cookies and other plainer fare, we didn't feel that we needed very much lunch. But all in all, it was an excellent fair and the boys in that area are as good (or better) cooks as their sisters. Boys took the first prizes in peanut butter cookies, raisin pie, white bread, date loaf and bran muffins!

My sincerest thanks go to Mrs. Sam Craig for a letter and clipping received from her this week. The clipping was from the Renfrew Mercury and told of the McDonald family reunion at the old homestead, near Renfrew, in 1955, when over forty of his descendants gathered to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the purchase of lots 25 and 26 on the seventh concession of Armaston, by John McDonald, newly arrived from Ireland, and which is now owned by a grandson of the original purchaser. My husband's father was ninety years old when we attended the reunion, but I think he enjoyed it more than any of us, reciting poetry he had learned when

Haileybury Baptists Hold Rally

The week-end of September 16th to 18th was emphasized as Rally Week-end in Haileybury Baptist Church.

On Friday evening to replace the annual church picnic which was rained out a corn and weiner roast was attended by about 67 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Kelly, Moore's Cove.

Sunday morning Mr. Kelly S.S. Superintendent addressed the four older classes of the S.S. basing his talk on the important role Sunday School plays in influencing the adult life. He emphasized the fact that while some boys and girls are inclined to brand as sissies those who attend Sunday School, many of our greatest people today are those who attended Sunday School while children and young adults.

During the morning service pastor de Vries spoke further on Rallying together for Christian service. The speaker for the evening was Rev. Jarold K. Zeman a native of Czechoslovakia who spoke on "bearing the marks of Christ", and told of the difficulty of being a Christian in his native land behind the Iron Curtain. He stated that prospective University students who are Christian or if their parents are at all interested in Christian work, the students are automatically prevented from entering University.

Following the service a conference was held when the work of the Baptist Jubilee Advance, five year programme was discussed. Visitation and church suppers and other church centred social events were mentioned as possible ways of interesting indifferent people as well as a friendly attitude in the church toward visitors.

Mr. de Vries closed the conference with prayer. Sunday September 25th will be Promotion Day in the Sunday School, the entire morning service being devoted to the Sunday School.

a boy as well as some that he had memorized the previous year. Mrs. Craig tells me that her parents and the original Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were friends and neighbors and went to the same church, sitting only a few seats apart. I appreciate, too, Mrs. Craig's sympathy regarding the illness of my husband, and the inquiries made by so many others. They all help so very, very much. His speech has improved considerably but otherwise his condition is unchanged.

Women's Fed. Holds Meeting

Mrs. C. E. Peacock led the devotional period when members of the Women's Federation of St. Andrew's United church held their September meeting in the church. Mrs. W. C. Arnold, with Patricia Arnold at the piano, led a short sing song.

Mrs. Peacock told of the work that had been done at the Manse and thanked the ladies for their part in it.

Mrs. Walter Gagnon advised the group that the members of the CGIT would be holding a tea and bake sale on September 24. They will also be setting up tables, serving and clearing up afterwards at a dinner sponsored by the Pete-costal congregation. The girls were given permission to use the church kitchen.

Mrs. L. Childs reported that she had made several calls during the summer months on sick and shut-in members. She also reminded the group of the birthday boy. Included in the correspondence was a letter from Marion Plaunt, thanking the ladies for sending her to Camp Council, also letters notifying regarding two rallies being held in Kirkland Lake, one on October 3 and one on Oct. 19.

The congregational vice-president, Mrs. Cliff Lowery, advised the members that the date of the bazaar would have to be changed. On a motion of Mrs. W. C. Arnold and Miss Muriel Rice the date was set for October 15. A letter regarding this change will be sent to all members of the congregation and will also give the changed date of the rummage sale which will now be held in November.

Miss Rice announced that the Session had started making plans for the anniversary service on October 30, when Rev. F. Stymiest, the new Superintendent of Missions, will be the guest preacher. He will speak at the morning service and following the potluck supper, will show slides taken while on a tour of Europe. Miss Rice also asked that the Federation supply a birthday cake for the occasion.

The October meeting will be a Thankoffering one, with a special speaker. Mrs. Peacock closed the meeting with a prayer.
