Pennies for UNICEF This Hallowe'en

This year something new is being tried out in Haileybury on Hallowe'en night. The witches, elves, ghosts and hobgoblins, who, in ordinary life are Girl Guides, Brownies and members of the CGIT, will be knocking on the doors, carrying labelled boxes and asking for "Pennies for UNICEF".

It takes very little to help the children in those other lands that the United Nation's Children's Fund are assisting. For instance, the price of a comic book will give a child in India fifty glasses of milk, an ice cream cone will protect ten children in Chile from tuberculosis. Each penny means five large glasses of milk, anti-TB vaccine or some other badly needed help for another child somewhere in the world.
