Dogs

He was generally supported by Councillor A. Olson, but Councillor Ollie Shaver said that the Township would be very sorry in the long run if it gives up the dog catcher. He warned that the previous council had given very serious consideration to the problem, and that the Tri-Town arrangement was the best found yet. He agreed, however, that something might be done to reduce costs of the dog catching. The Council agreed to study the matter further.
