

Across the Kitchen Table

For many years I have preached the philosophy of "flowers for the living", and I was so delighted to see Miss Muriel Rice get some of hers while she still has so many years left to enjoy them.

Her birthday party last Wednesday evening was a delightful, spontaneous affair, informal and sincere, which brought out, very clearly, many of the behind the scenes services, far beyond the call of duty, that Miss Rice has been doing, quietly and unobtrusively, for many years, for those with whom she came in contact.

A particularly pleasing feature of the program was the singing of the choir from Holy Cross School in Haileybury, in both French and English. The song they sang was a special tribute to Miss Rice, composed by Sister Jean du Calvaire, the principal of the school, and here is the English version of it:

"On this happy evening,
This happy evening,
Our melodies
Soar up towards Heaven
Yes, towards Heaven
In rhapsodies
We ask for your happiness
For all your kindness
May God grant always
And give you in many ways
Your heart's desire at
The Tri-Towns, always
Here and there and everywhere
From one town to another
Testing, nursing, sympathizing
Call on us to follow."

My acquaintance with Miss Rice began in her training days at the

Alfred Sauve

Funeral services were held from Holy Cross Church, Thursday, February 23, at 10 a.m. for Alfred Sauve, well-known citizen of the town, whose death occurred in Misericordia Hospital on Monday, February 20, following an illness of three weeks. The funeral mass was in charge of Rev. C. Lapointe.

Born in Point Fortune, Que., 84 years ago, Mr. Sauve spent his early life there and later went to Warren, near Sudbury, where he was married on January 7, 1906, to the former Miss Laurentine Proulx. Twenty-five years later they came with their family to Haileybury.

Mr. Sauve farmed while at Warren and also in the West Road area near Haileybury. He also worked as a construction foreman.

He is survived by his wife, eight sons, Romuald, New Liskeard; Marcel, Noranda; Gerald, Cobalt; Ernest, Laurence, Lionel, Fernand and Rheal, all of Haileybury; and five daughters, Rose (Mrs. James Whelan), Haileybury; Ida (Mrs. R. Demers), Timmins; Alice (Mrs. Paul Rochon), Bourlamacque, Que.; Irene (Mrs. Peter Allard), North Bay; and Florence (Mrs. Joseph Velleneuve), Creighton Mines. Also surviving are 65 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Two sons predeceased him, Ted, who died in 1952 and Rene, in 1960.

Mr. Sauve was the last surviving member of his family.

Acting as pall-bearers were his eight sons. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Tell some people you can't get along without them and before long you can't get along with them.

Lady Minto, where my husband's sister, Olive McDonald, was also in training. And my personal wishes for many more years of service and enjoyment go to her with the old Scottish greeting, "Lang may your lum reek," which, being Scottish, she will understand, even if the Sessenachs do not.

Who, Me?

"You watch the man who drives ahead,
And the man who drives behind.
You watch to the right,
You watch to the left,
You drive with a calm, clear mind.
But the man you really have to watch
On the highway, you will find,
Is the man behind the man ahead,
And ahead of the man behind."

Former Cobalter Represents Guides

Mrs. J. C. Crawford has received word that her niece, Miss Mary Hallett of Bracebridge, formerly of Cobalt and well known in Haileybury, has been appointed Guider-in-Charge of a Girl Guide Camping Party which will represent Canada at the Four Winds International Camp in Finland this summer.

Leaving by boat in mid-July, the party of six will spend six weeks on the trip. Others are an assistant Guider and four girls from across Canada.

The choice of Miss Hallett for this responsible position is an indication of the esteem she enjoys in the ranks of Guiding. In Bracebridge she has been Captain of the First Guide Company since 1954

Leaders Needed For District RCA

At the February meeting of the Tri-Town and District Association For Retarded Children held earlier this week, Charles Abel, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a partial slate of officers for 1961.

Mr. Abel has experienced some difficulty in recruiting sufficient persons to complete the slate and and organized the First Brownie Pack there. In addition she has been of valuable assistance in the Georgian Bay area in training new leaders and in camping. Four years ago she was one of the leaders at the World Camp held in Doe Lake.

has sent out an appeal to members of the Association and to the general public to allow their names to stand.

Association President, Mrs. Charlton Taylor, reported that the date of the conference and annual meeting of the Ontario Association for Retarded Children in Toronto will be April 28 and 29th. It is hoped that someone from the local Association will be able to attend.

The annual meeting of the Tri-Town association will be held in the Banquet Hall at the Community Hall on Monday, March 20, and will feature installation of officers and annual reports of the retiring executive.
