Friendship Group Installs Officers

COBALT — Mrs. N. O. Webb of Englehart, W.M.S. Presbyterian Secretary for Affiliated C.G.I.T. Groups and the Sunshine Gals C.G.I.T. Group and their leader, Mrs. Albert Svekers, were present at the regular meeting of the Friendship Group which was held in the United Church hall last week.

The visitors were in attendance for the Affiliation Service of the C.G.I.T. following the completion of the World Friendship Project, which the President, Gail Stoughton, outlined, and was further explained in a short dialogue in which all the C.G.I.T. took part.

Mrs. Menzie Friendship Group President presented the World Friendship Insignia to each of the girls.

The Worship Service which was taken by the C.G.I.T. opened with singing, followed by Bible readings by Beverly Tryon. The service closed with a prayer by Mrs. Webb after which the girls sang the C.G.I.T. hymn.

The installation of the Friendship Group Executive which had been postponed for various reasons, took place. Rev. Wiprecht, who installed the officers, said that this was an historic event as this would be the last time officers of this group would be installed, 1962 is the year for the amalgamation of all the women's groups of the United Church. He thanked the Friendship Group on behalf of the church for the wonderful work carried on through the years.

New President is Mrs. M. Menzie; vice-president, Mrs. N. Wallman; secretary, Mrs. E. Aspden; treasurer, Mrs. M. Rajala and card secretary, Mrs. B. Christie. Roll call was answered by sixteen members, and eight guests were present.

A letter was read from the Junior Association of St. Paul's United Church in New Liskeard, accepting the invitation to join with the Friendship Group for their meeting of April 18.

As provisions in the church kitchen are running low, a motion was made to have these replenished.

The card secretary had sent out four 'get well' cards and one baby congratulation card since the previous meeting.

Mrs. P. Clattenburg and Mrs. L. Brydges were appointed with Mrs. M. Menzie for the manse committee.

It was decided to have the roll call answered at the next meeting with donations of preserves, honey, etc., for Northdale Manor.

A decision was made to have a rummage sale on April 21 and 22.

STACK 'EM UP

O have you seen the sturdy heels Stacked up against the slim ones? Although stilettoes pleased some girls, My views of these were dim ones.

But hail the new and sturdy stacks. These will not catch in grating, Nor nick your floors, nor pierce your rugs— A fact that earns top rating.

Stilettoes may look slim and trim, As wearers' tiptoe lightly; But how those wearers welcome flats When they reach home base nightly!

Neat stacks may be a comedown for Stiletto fans sans reason; But won't the girls be comfortable In walking shoes this season.

And if they could just take a bit, just a tiny bit, off the point of the toes, so that they wouldn't look like the front end of a devil's darningneedle coming towards you, wouldn't it be even nicer?

Well, March went out like a lamb, but the little lamb surely found a whole flock of wooly sheep as soon as it got out. However, it's nice to see that snow melting away, and weren't the trees beautiful?

Easter Sunday was a happy one for me, with a phone call from my son at midnight, one daughter and part of the family for lunch after church, the other one and her husband for dinner, and my niece and her family dropping in on their way home from Parry Sound.

Caesar Corbelli

COBALT — Requiem High Mass was celebrated at the Ste. Therese Church on Saturday, March 25, at 10 a.m. for the late Caesar Corbelli, who passed away in the Misericordia Hospital on Wednesday, March 22, after a very short illness. Rev. Father O. Lemay officiated at the funeral.

Mr. Corbelli, who resided on Third St. in Cobalt, was born in Pesaro, Italy, 77 years ago.

He was married at Pesaro in 1906 to the former Edvigi Zuffini and in 1919 moved to Canada, where for many years, Mr. Corbelli was well known as a wood dealer at Cobalt.

He is survived by his wife and three sons, Nello of Thorold, Yolando of Niagara Falls, Leno of North Bay, two daughters, Melvina (Mrs. G. Gabbani) and Delia (Mrs. G. Modesto) both of Rouyn.

There are also 17 grandchildren. Interment was in the Catholic Cemetery at Mileage 104.

Mrs. Wink thanked the members who had filled in vacant offices. Lunch was served by Mrs. Greening and her committee at the conclusion of the meeting.

Tomorrow Bras by WARNER'S

Almost nobody is an exact size A, B or C cup all the time. (Haven't you noticed the change yourself, from week to week?) But here at last is a bra — Warner's wonderful new TOMORROW — that can practically guarantee you the perfect fit that means real bra flattery... every day of the month!

Airy elastic mesh, with no seams to spoil its flexibility, completely surrounds each cup, lets each cup expand outward with your body, to cling and mold as if it were custom made just for you! You'll love what TOMORROW does for your figure! Stop in and see for yourself — TOMORROW!
