"Living This Year With God" Theme at Presbytery Meet

Mrs. A. J. Gibbs, President of Toronto Conference Woman's Association of the United Church, spoke on this theme at the annual meeting of Temiskaming Presbytery Woman's Association of the United Church of Canada in Swastika Church, May 3rd, when 87 delegates from Temagami in the south to Bourlamaque in the east, gathered to learn more of the plans for the New organization for women in 1962, and how it will effect the whole program of the church.

Mrs. Geo. Honer, Kirkland Lake, led an inspiring devotional period choosing as her theme, the DOORS — open to opportunity, but also a means to get away from reality. The DOOR is a challenge to all who use it as it was intended, a means of going into something new. Mrs. MacDonald of Kirkland Lake was organist for the whole day.

Rev. Norman Thomas and the Swastika Elders conducted the Holy Communion service which was followed by the address by Mrs. A. J. Gibbs. As women, we must realize that this year is so very important in the life and outlook of the whole church, that it shall be a time of total commitment of ourselves in time, talent, and material wealth. To be prepared we must LISTEN—carefully and with an open mind; STUDY—to analyse the whole program and how it will effect us; PRAY—for guidance to the new opportunity ahead for each one. She said there seems to be a common disease which is spreading over the Christian Church today called "WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?" Have you caught this dread disease, or are you immune to its wrath? Where is Christianity? Is it at the typewriter in the den, in the neighbour's yard (helping in a situation) or on the busy street. Can these three worlds come together? We should be graced with a spiritual naturalism. She stated the objective of the new organization and what she hoped would be the highlight of each local next year, would be the number of women brought to Christ . . . not the amount of money raised, or the achievements in other ways.

Mrs. C. C. Sinclair, Noranda, (Literature Sect'y) gave a resume of books on display and helps for Bible study — "Greater Understanding of the Bible", "Let the Bible Speak", "Notes on Bible Reading", Prayers for three to eight year olds; Visitors packets; Citizenship materials.

Head table guests at the noon luncheon brought greetings from their organizations and included: Mrs. Geo. Honer, Kirkland Lake, past president; Mrs. Geo. Ed-waras, Englehart, W. M. S. president for Temiskaming; Mrs. W. E. Taylor, Swastika, local W. A. president; Rev. J. Lougheed, Kirkland Lake, chairman of Court of Church.

Guests: Mrs. A. J. Gibbs, Toronto, conf. W. A. president; Rev. N. Thomas, Swastika, local minister; Mrs. McDonald, Kirkland Lake, organist; Mrs. N. O. Webb, Englehart, 1st vice president of W.A. Immediately following the luncheon (Continued on Page Twelve)
