A Private Prayer

"Lord, keep me now and in old age from getting too talkative, and from thinking I must straighten out everybody's affairs. Make me thoughtful, not moody; helpful, not bossy. Let me be silent about my own aches and pains; and help me to endure the tales of other people's ills. And, Lord, let me extract all possible fun out of life. Amen."

Reprinted from Bishop Coleman's Monthly Parish Paper

I found the prayer, printed above, in the last issue of "The Trillium".

It doubles the warmth of any fabric to which it is bonded and yet adds little weight. Evelyn has an excellent selection of laminated foam wool jersey and suedella, in jackets and full length coats in gold, brown, honey beige, green and other colours, with the new '61 styling. You will find the price right, too, on these quality garments.

the official publication of the Civil Service Association of Ontario and thought it so good that I'm memorizing it in the hope that I'll be able to follow it. My own aches and pains seem pretty important at times, but thanks to a family who usually remark "Oh, mother just sat on a thistle," when they hear me yelp or groan when I get up or down suddenly, I find that I can usually grin and then nothing seems as bad. The "mother sat on a thistle" remark dates back to the time, when as children, they accompanied me, more or less cheerfully, to the back pasture, which was badly infested with thistles, to pick wild strawberries. As I always sat on the ground to pick berries, I frequently arose suddenly with a yell, because of those pesky weeds. At first, the children would ask, rather anxiously, "What happened?" when I yelled, but as my answer invariably was, "Oh I sat on a thistle," they soon came to the point where one would say to the other, whenever I yelled, "Oh, mother just sat on a thistle." And things learned in childhood are not quickly forgotten.

Mrs. Cameron's niece from Smith Falls arrived Saturday to spend several days with us and Sunday we drove to Ville Marie. It is at least five years since I had been there and the others had never been, so we all thoroughly enjoyed the trip. We passed a lovely stone house with a flower bed across the front, also built of stone, level with the veranda and about three feet wide, just filled with pansies of all shades and colours. We passed over the new bridge at Judge, drove up to the Grotto and then around the town and came home very pleased with our drive. Oh, yes, we also saw hundreds of cows, "horrible critters".

Heikkila - Adams

A wedding trip to Niagara Falls and the States followed the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heikkila. The bride is the former Gloria Jean Eleanor Adams, daughter of Mrs. Ovilla Leveille, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Heikkila, all of Haileybury.

Rev. Roy H. Nixon officiated at the ceremony which took place in St. Paul's Anglican Church on Saturday evening, August 26, at 7 o'clock. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Alex Wilson and the soloist was Mrs. E. Young.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Ovilla Leveille, the bride wore for her wedding a waltz-length gown of white nylon lace fitted bodice and double tiered skirt. Her veil of nylon tulle was edged all round with scalloped lace and was draped from a shimmering tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. Red roses formed her bouquet.

She was attended by Miss Pat Champagne as maid-of-honour and Miss Merle Waugh as bridesmaid. They chose frocks of soft, sheer nylon chiffon in shades of yellow and aqua, fashioned with scoop necklines and lace cummerbunds. Both carried nosegays of pink and yellow mums.

The best man was Chuck Coull and the ushers were John Mikkola and George Mahon.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the Elk's Lodge, Mrs. Leveille wore a gown of ice blue and gold silk with white accessories. The groom's mother chose lilac nylon with light blue accessories. Both ladies wore corsages of pink roses.

For travelling the bride wore a knitted suit in olive green with white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sheldon and son, and Donat Bourgeois of Larder Lake; Mr. and Mrs. William Troke, King Kirkland; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Larocque, Kirkland Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gilmore, Virginiatown; Mr. and Mrs. Rene Courtemanche and Donald Courtemanche, of North Bay; Mrs. Wilbur Brydle, Timmins; Mrs. Marcel Legault, of Latchford.

More Lights For Haileybury

As a follow-up of last year's street light survey that saw our business section and through town route lit up, this year's survey was aimed at brightening the way to all our schools and churches.

Some additional dark spots were looked after with new enclosed fixtures of smaller type units with 200 watt bulbs. The old saucer, or open type lights, were equal to about 70 watt-power, as they were 100 candlepower. There will be an additional 17 new Mercury Vapour 400 watt lights and 30 new enclosed smaller lights installed, and 25 old open type fixtures removed, plus eight enclosed fixtures also removed, due to replacement by the larger 400 watt lights installation.

It is my hope that next year should see Latchford and North Rorke, also Brewster Street and Georgina Ave. south of Main, and Meridian Ave., made brighter with similar lighting. I feel the best advertisement a town can get is to be able to see and enjoy it after darkness falls, and I know of no better way to cut down on vandalism and at the same time save broken bones, possibly a life, than to brighten up a place.

Street lighting a municipality today is paid over a 20 year period to the Hydro Company so the effect on the mill-rate is very little. All burned out lights should be reported by phone call to New Liskeard. Call Zenith 64900 (no toll charge) as patrolling street lights by the Hydro is no longer being done.

Chairman of Light,

Labarge - Beausejour For Labor Day

A quiet wedding took place recently at Holy Cross Church, Haileybury, with Rev. A. Lapointe officiating, when Mrs. Lydia Savoie, daughter of Mr. Nazare Beausejour of St. Ambroise, was united in marriage with Mr. Narcisse Labarge, formerly of Maniwaki, Que., son of Mr. N. Labarge of Haileybury. Gladioli and red roses decked the altar for the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Aldoma Bisson, wore a royal blue and white jacket dress with white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. Edgar Labarge and later Mr. and Mrs. Labarge left for a wedding trip to Timmins, the bride travelling in a blue suit with white accessories.

They will reside in Haileybury.
