Court Sequel to Hunting Fatality

A Firstbrook Township farmer who shot and fatally wounded another man while moose hunting was fined $200 and costs in Haileybury magistrate's court last Friday.

Magistrate E. W. Kenrick found 56-year-old George Sidney guilty of a charge of carelessly handling a firearm.

Sidney had been tracking a moose near his farm on October 14, the first day of the season, when he mistook a movement in dense bush and fatally shot Alfred Boucher, 49, of Cobalt. Moments before, Mr. Boucher, dressed in olive green coveralls, had blown a moose call. Sidney fired his 12-gauge shotgun from a range of 60 to 70 feet.

Lions Edge Cubs Take First Win

New Liskeard Cubs still have to find the winning combination and drive to pull themselves the early season slump that is leaving them farther and farther behind the league leaders.

Last week they dropped their fourth game, a 3-2 decision to the Lions for the Kirklanders first win of the season. More important, the score would have been much worse if it hadn't been for the keen play of Jean-Paul Grenon in Liskeard nets.

The low-scoring game was also a clean one, referees Gord Christo and Vern Mortson handed out four penalties, two to each team, and each team scored a goal while the opposition was short-handed.

The Cubs might have come up with a win, if they had started their drive in the first period. They put strong pressure on Ricky Duffet in the Lions net in the dying minutes of the game, but the rookie goalie came up with several startling saves, and the clock ran out on the Cubs.

Lions scored the only first period goal, when their power play clicked and Teasdale beat Grenon cleanly. Peter Grant was in the sin-bin for the only first period penalty.

Don Anderson evened the count for Liskeard midway through the second period when he drifted a shot from a sharp angle which Duffet bobbed and allowed to drop over the goal crease.

Bob Gervais put the Lions ahead again early in the third when he grabbed a loose puck and back-handed it past Grenon, and it took the Cubs five minutes to pull even again with Lions.

The home club was short-handed, and Liskeard's power play paid off with Peter Grant beating Duffet on a screen shot from point.

Lions moved in front again when Wayne Duffet intercepted a Cub pass at centre ice and flipped a 35 footer that evaded Grenon and caught the top corner of the net.

Cubs stormed around the Lions net for the rest of the period, but Duffet was hot, and robbed the Cubs of several goals with his sharp play. Coach Don Shepherdson pulled Grenon for the last minutes of play, but the Lions defence held for a well-earned win.

Cubs — Goal, Grenon; defence, P. Grant, J. Grant, St. Cyr, Armstrong; forwards, Farrow, Conlin, White, Haines, Black, Cook, Mooney, Anderson, Tanguay.

Lions — Goal, R. Duffet; defence, Lemire, Schram, Heard, Finger, Bowman; forwards, W. Duffet, Perry, Gervais, Gourley, Bowman, Teasdale, Lauzon, Poulton.

Legion Scores Six In Five Minutes To Top Cub Scorers

New Liskeard Cubs slipped further down the standing ladder last Friday night when they bowed 7-3 to Kirkland Legion at the Memorial Arena.

The teams battled on even terms for the first 20 minutes of the game, and although Legion had a one-man advantage three times, they were unable to penetrate the Cub defence after their first goal at the two minute mark, with Banach as the sniper. Murray Black scored Liskeard's goal near the end of the period.

Legion came out of the dressing room on the run at the start of the second period, and took a comfortable lead with a three goal scoring spurge crammed into a space of two minutes. They relaxed enough near the end of the period to let Billie White ram home the Cubs second goal.

Black got his second goal of the evening near the start of the 3rd period, cutting Legions lead to one goal, but the Legionnaires built up another head of steam and rattled in another three goals for an easy win, but this time it took them three minutes to net the trio of goals.

Coach Don Shepherdson and the Cubs are dissatisfied with their showing to date, and long, tough practice sessions are in order in an all-out attempt to whip the team into a winning frame of mind.

LEGION — Goal Legault; defence, Decaire, Ryan; forwards, Banach, Williamson Trussler; alternates, Lawless, McNabb, Watt, Coumbs, Mervyn, Hamilton, Allick, Keene, Lapierre.

CUBS — Goal, Grenon; defence, P. Grant, J. Grant; forwards, Conlin, Haines, Black; alternates, White, Farrow Anderson, Mooney, Cook, Tanguay, Armstrong, St. Cyr.

8. Legion — Trussler, 15.14
9. Legion — Coumbs (Hamilton) 17.12
10. Legion — Lawless (McNabb, Watt) 18.18
Penalties — Anderson, 4.30, Ryan 5.43, P. Grant, Mervyn, 10.17 Watt, 11.02

Lumber Executive Jack Murphy Dies

The Tri-Town area was shocked yesterday to hear of the sudden death of John Hammond (Jack) Murphy. Vice-president of the Murphy Lumber Company, he died in Western hospital, Toronto after an illness of about two months. He was 52.

Mr. Murphy had devoted the greater part of his life to the family's lumbering business, and was keenly interested in new processes and techniques. He was also very concerned with the safety of men working in the bush, and was an active member of the Lumbermen's Safety Association.

A mechanical engineer, he was widely acclaimed throughout the industry for designing the layout of the new Murphy lumber mill at Latchford. This is generally recognized as being one of the most efficient operations of its kind in the province.

Born at Haileybury in 1909, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Murphy. He attended school in Haileybury, and at St. Andrew's College in Toronto. Later he graduated in 1936 as a mechanical engineer from Queen's University.

A keen hockey player, as a young man he played for his university, and then played at Porcupine for a year when employed by Dome Mines.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.
