Mission Circle has Turkey Dinner

Members of The Mission Circle of the Haileybury Pentecostal Church held their December meeting as a combined meeting and turkey dinner at Breault's Restaurant, north of New Liskeard with 33 members and guests present.

Following the dinner, an interesting Christmas program was presented with Mrs. Fred Harman leading in the singing of carols, accompanied by accordion music by Mrs. Tom Campbell. Mrs. Vernon Wark led in prayer and Mrs. W. Graff read the Christmas story from Luke, second chapter, first to twentieth verses.

Four of the members of the Young Ladies class, Sharon Lowe, Sharon Walker, Charlene Campbell and Betty Ann McRoberts sang "Loveliest Night."

Following the program, a number of games were enjoyed with Mrs. Churchill in charge.

A draw for a Christmas door decoration was won by Sharon Lowe. An Exchange of gifts took place, among the members, and the president, Mrs. Fred Harman and the vice-president, Mrs. V. Wark, were presented with special gifts by Mrs. Churchill and Mrs. J. Harman. Mrs. Churchill was then presented with a gift on behalf of the group, by Mrs. Fred Harman.

The singing of Silent Night and prayer by Mrs. Fred Rose brought the evening to a close.

The hanging up of the mistletoe and the burning of the Yule log are two of the most ancient customs which come from our pagan ancestors.

Santa Arrested
Under Old Law

PENNDDEL, Pa. — Santa Claus was brought into court accused of breaking a law 167 years old, but Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer he was freed.

Santa, 58-year-old Earl Steger, was arrested Sunday as he was listening to children pour out their holiday wishes at a discount market.

Police Chief William Riempp and Sgt. Norman Rigby told him he was playing hob with the blue laws, which forbid the sale of non-essentials on Sunday.

But to get Santa on the rap, since he was selling nothing, the authorities had to invoke the code of 1794 rather than the revised version of 1959. Under the old law it is unlawful to be gainfully employed on Sunday.

Said Riempp: "The old blue law has never been repealed, and I have the option of making an arrest under either or both of these laws."

Four of St. Nick's helpers were cited on the same charge. Their cases are pending.

Agitation for a crackdown on blue law violators has been coming from an ethical business practices committee. A spokesman for this group commented ruefully, however, that arresting Santa was more than had been bargained for "making us look like scrooges."

As Santa, arrayed in red suit and white whiskers, stood at the bar of justice, Judge William Oettinger said: "This is very embarrassing."

After listening to both prosecution and defence, the judge hastened to say: "It gives me great honor to discharge this defendant. This is the last place Santa Claus belongs. Gainful employment, indeed! Everybody knows Santa gives, that he doesn't take."

News from the Evelyn Shoppe

HAILEYBURY

Time flies, and this week's snow has put us really in the mood for Christmas shopping. In the Evelyn Shoppe you can almost hear the jingle of Santa's sleighbells, and a hint dropped there usually reaches the dear old chap, too.

Morning coffee charm! A beautiful way to start the day is in a lovely short robe of washable luxurious Orlon or Viyella flannel, light as a feather, but oh, so cosy and warm.

The six senses of Fashion, Vitality, Taste, Beauty, Color, Touch, and Lightness, are all brought to perfection in Luxite by Kayser in their satin tapestry sets, dainty and ethereal nylon sheer combined with the rich luxury of "Sati-lene" fashions the graceful waltz-length gown, slip and pantie, Also negligee sets, Capri pyjamas and dreamy bed jackets, and to make you look still more glamorous, a boudoir cap to cover those curlers!

A woman in the mood for beauty finds it in a smooth, shimmering dress of peau de soie and floating chiffon. One we like is in rose chiffon with beaded top. We also have a number of very smart looking-wools.

Do not forget that Evelyn carries Liberty silk scarves. These make delightful gifts in one of the Liberty folders. Or, a Liberty blouse in an unusual print. A gift of Liberty's will be cherished and worn with pleasure.

A pair of Supp-hose for comfort? Or strictly for glamour, sheer hosiery by Kayser, Phantom or Christian Dior.

For the week-end — Special values in party dresses.
