Brilliant Concert By Two Choral Societies

A brilliant rendering of "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" from Longfellow's famous poem, by the combined Haileybury and Cobalt choral societies, was the chief feature of a splendid concert given in the assembly hall of the High School here on Thursday evening last. This was the first performance of this work, set to music by S. Coleridge-Taylor, given in Northern Ontario and it was particularly interesting in view of the fact that it was from Northern Ontario Lakeland that the Ojibway chiefs came who told the story.

The concert on Thursday night was the third since the societies were organized. There were seventy voices in the chorus under the direction of Mr. Unwin, who is making a name for himself in this part of the country as a conductor and instructor of merit. The tenor solo, "Onaway, Awake, Beloved", was sung by Mr. Geo. Labelle who came from Toronto, where he is attending the University for this occasion. Many well-known singers of Cobalt

PIPERS OF ENGLEHART LIVEN UP OPENING OF HAILEYBURY BONSPIEL

When the big bonspiel opened in Haileybury on Tuesday morning, the proceedings were considerably livened up by the presence of the Englehart Pipe Band, which attends practically all the functions in the immediate district. The skirl of the pipers, the flapping of the kilts, the welcome sights and sounds of local people, whether engaged in the bonspiel or the Scotties were a most interesting reception on their part on the streets.

At intervals during the day while the games are in progress, the pipers play stirring music to encourage the players in their efforts and to help all are having the time of their lives during the 'spiel.
