

Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff League results for Week 14

An eight-run outburst in the bottom of the seventh inning propelled the high flying Navy Seals past the Green Beer-ch's (G.B.E.) 12-11 in week 14 action of the Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff League.

The Seals were lead in their comeback victory by Jo-Anne Gravelle and Irene Van Ryn. Gravelle tripled, going three-for-four, to drive in three runs and score two more, while Van Ryn had three hits and scored twice herself.

Also scoring runs for the winners were Jennifer Krafczek and Racheal Jackson with two each, Dianne Saunders, Lynne Gravelle, Carol Spiteri and Karin McDonald.

Debbie Tatham led the G.B.E.'s, smacking a home run and a double, while Jeannie Brooks and Karen Tales delivered two-base hits.

Stacy Hamilton and Jean Puckering had good nights on the mound, but couldn't hold back a tough and gritty Navy Seal squad.

The news didn't get much better for the G.B.E.'s later in the week. They dropped their second game of the week, a 21-12 decision to We'll Drink to That (W.D.T.T.). An eight-run first inning explosion keyed the W.D.T.T. victory.

Laura Legere and Linda McClure paced the winner's attack, each slamming a home run and a double. Diane Richardson, with two, and Holly Peterson, with one, also doubled for W.D.T.T..

For G.B.E., Jeannie Davis tripled and drove in a run, while Puckering doubled and cashed in two baserunners. Tatham and Brooks also doubled for the losers who saw their record drop to 5-10-0 for the 1996 campaign.

Despite, a mammoth home run from Teri Korzack - which woke up the dead or atleast the resting at the senior citizen rest home - The Grape Escape (T.G.E.) dropped a 20-18 decision to The Law (3-10-2).

Denise Eden, Nancy Hoover, Sue Martin and Cris Russell doubled for T.G.E., who due to vacationing regulars were forced to go with a pair of green pitchers, Hoover and Jeannie LaRouso. Both ladies pitched admirably in a losing effort.

In spite of the loss, T.G.E. (12-3-0) maintained their strangle hold on third-place, six points in front of fourth-place Mean & Ugly (8-5-2).

Tony Robbins seminars must have paid dividends for the Spoilers, who used a 'positive-never-say-die' attitude to squeak past Out of The Blue (O.O.T.B.) 16-14.

The turning point came in the sixth inning when the Spoilers came from out of the blue to rally for nine runs. With the loss, the O.O.T.B.'ers (13-2-1) drooped out of a first-place tie with the Moodie Blues (14-1-1) at top the G.L.P.L. standings.

Gail Campbell paced the winners with a triple and two doubles, while Lucy McLelland chipped in with a triple of her own and Betty Flikkema added a double.

Karen Appleyard made a fantastic catch in right field to help snuff out a O.O.T.B. rally and injured Anne Korzack provided some inspirational scorekeeping.

Acting coaches Morley and McClelland did a super job filling in and Goldie finally cashed in with a hit.

Cindy See paced the O.O.T.B. assault slamming a pair of homers, including a grand slam, and knocking in five runs.

Jo-Anne Emmerson added three rbi's, while Virginia Walker doubled and scored twice, and Susan Wilson scored three times.

In an old fashioned slugfest, We'll Drink To That (W.D.T.T.) went home tired and thirsty, dropping a 25-21 game to Off Base.

The winners, who saw their record improve to 8-6-1, good for fifth-place in the league, were led by the mighty bats of Penny 'Cookie' Butterworth and Melissa Muirhead, who had four rbi's each.

Elaine Moreland, Sherry Wilson and Muirhead tripled for Off Base, while Tammy Lockwood, Melanie Hewson and Janet Hern chipped in with doubles.

Lorie Sinnaeve's big base hit cashed in teammate Colleen Cadger to give the Moodie Blues (M.B.) a tight 3-2 win over All-Sorts in front of an appreciative crowd.

Four M.B. hurlers combined to throttle the All-Sorts attack. Sandy Bridges led the strong armed M.B. brigade of Judy Faulhafer, Lynn LaFleur and Annette VanDyke, with five strikeouts.

On the offensive side of play, Diane Moore doubled for the winners who recorded their league-leading 14th win of the season.

All-Sorts were sparked by the strong defense of Sharon Orton and Tara Leavitt, and the pitching of Cathy Dawson and Donna DeHaas, who also had a double. The loss dropped All-Sorts' record a game below .500, to 7-8-0.

Cindy Kavanagh was one 'Red Hot Chili Pepper' leading her club of the same name to a 20-8 romp over Javahjolti XXV (J.J.).

Kavanagh cranked a pair of home runs, one a moonshot over the fence and the other an inside the parker, as the Cili Peppers behind the inspirational words of acting coach Troy Hilt saw their record improve to 5-8-0 for the season.

Aiding in the winning effort were Tammy Waters, who tripled, and doubles by Sharon Zmija, Julie Hilt and, once again, Kavanagh.

Nancy Andrews and Paulette Friolet hit homers, and Andie Perriman had a double for J.J.'s (4-11-1), who just couldn't put the deep freeze on the Hot Peppers.

Mean & Ugly (M&U) were downright nasty and inhospitable, dominating F.M.P. 17-7, to maintain their slim hold on fourth-place in league standings.

Roseanne Harrison kickstarted the M&U (8-5-2) attack with a spectacular home run and triple. Susan Priest also cranked out a home run and added at double, with Helen Slingsby adding a two-base hit.

Nancy Gruter caught F.M.P. napping, stealing home plate, and Bev

Daquano made several key catches in the field. And as normal, senior Mary Jones played a steady game.

Leading the way for F.M.P., was Karen Fedora, who went three-for-three, whacking a dandy home run and driving in three runs. For good measure, she also scored three times.

Robin Richardson had three hits and scored two runs while D.D. Ridley smacked out two hits for the losers who saw their season mark drop to 4-11-1.

We won't give you a hard sell, but our customers will.

Our best salespeople don't even work for Saturn. They just happen to own Saturns. Which explains why most people who come to look at our cars already know a fair bit about them. From their neighbours, co-workers or friends.

So we never have to push our rust and dent-resistant polymer panels, our no-dicker-with-the-sticker policy and our commitment to customer service. After all, that would be giving you something you don't really need. A sales pitch.

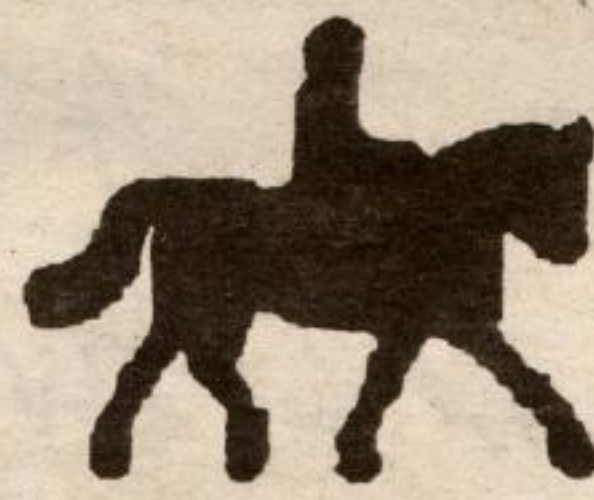

A DIFFERENT KIND OF COMPANY. A DIFFERENT KIND OF CAR.
