

'Horns make history

By Paul Sargent

Special to The Gemini

Week #9 of the Georgetown Men's Flag Football League featured two shutouts and one nailbiter as the top four teams continue to jockey for favourable playoff spots.

The first game of the day featured the Big Horns and the ever improving Hawgs. Led by a stellar offensive punch the 'Horns pitched a 15-0 shutout at the Hawgs. Leading the offensive foray for the Longhorns was Bob Davey who scampered in for one major and added a two point convert. The other Longhorn major was scored by Big Bird, Jeff Coulighan. Darrell Weir added a single as the 'Horns prevailed in what is believed to be the first shutout in their long and illustrious history.

For the Hawgs it was a question of having to scramble just to field a team. Good performances by their defence prevented this game from getting out of hand.

Another shut out was the story of the second game of the day as the Bandits hung the IRS squad out to dry to the tune of 37-0.

Cesare Mauti led the Bandits attack with one major, a two-pointer and a single. Adding points for the defending league champions were Kevin Gilbert, Rob Thompson, Dan McManus and Mike Saccucci who all hit pay dirt as quarterback Paul Tsaparis spread out the wealth.

The Bandits' Thompson also picked off an errant IRS pass.

League newcomers, IRS, did not have a lot to cheer about in this game, however, solid games by Jeff Davis and David Andrews gave them something to build on for the future.

The Hawgs returned to the field for the second half of their double dip and were nipped by the Hurricanes 20-17.

Rob Spiteri was a one man gang for the 'Canes as he did all the scoring for the purple machine. Spiteri had a first half field goal and then really turned on the juice, scoring two majors, two converts and another field goal. One of his touchdowns came via a spectacular 50-yard punt return up the middle of the field to pull the 'Canes even with the Hawgs at 17-17.

For the Hawgs, Chris Bonner and Mark Andrews croseed the goalline while Jamie Prevett added a field goal and a two-point convert.

pace an undermanned D.Q. squad who with the loss fell into a third-place tie with The Design Builder, both with identical 6-8 records.

Junior League

Delrex Smoke Shop moved into sole possession of top-spot in the junior loop with a 30-6 thumping of Young's Pharmacy. Delrex's record now stands at a perfect 8-0, two-points in front of idle Pizza Hut (7-2) with one-game in hand.

Leading the way winners was a stingy defense which limit a potent Young's offense, which had previously averaged beter than 20 runs a game, to only six runs.

Offensively for Delrex, Elizabeth Black and Kelly Haines each homered.

For Young's (3-6), Melissa Eady had two hits while Alicia Wilton, Mallory Harrison and Megan Rowney had excellent games with the glove.

Larissa Farley and Amy Garbutt each homered and played solid defense to lead Standard Products (4-5) to a 19-11 win over M&M Sports.

Hannah Jacobs and Sara Scuralli scored twice for a young and inexperienced M&M squad, who despite their 0-9 record, continue to improve. Nicole Burse was named M&M's game star for her solid all-around play.
