

Bandits stealing away

BY PAUL SARGENT
Special to The Gemini

The defending league champion Bandits served notice Sunday at Georgetown District High School Field that they intend to fight tooth and nail in an effort to defend their hardware. The Bandits took the field twice and in both games came away with victories.

The Bandits first encounter of the day was against the Link Line Bighorns. The Bandits were anxious for a little revenge as the Bighorns had defeated them earlier in the season in what had to be termed a major upset.

Led by the accurate passing of pivot Paul Tsaparis,

FLAG FOOTBALL

the Bandits rolled past the 'Horns 26-1. Leading the way for the winners was defensive specialist Rob Thompson, who in addition to picking off an errant 'Horns pass also chipped in a touchdown and a two-point convert.

Adding majors for the Bandits were speedy Kevin Gilbert, Dan Salvarinas and Paul Saccucci who broke open a pass and run for a nifty 80-yard td effort. Also pulling down an interception for the winners was Duff Moore.

For the 'Horns, it was a matter of the offense not being able to take advantage of Bandit' miscues.

Twice the 'Horns were rewarded with favorable field position and twice they came up empty.

The lone point on the board came off a Darrell Weir field goal attempt which sailed wide on the last play of the game.

The 'Horns defense continued to play extremely well as they limited the Bandits' high powered offense to less than 30-points.

In the day's second match, the league leading M&M Sportsmen pounded out a methodical and efficient 32-19 win over the Hawgs.

D.D.H. and Delrex: a perfect pair

ELITE LEAGUE

D.D.H. Distribution finished the season undefeated with a 14-0-0 record courtesy of a convincing 16-3 win over Norval Farm Supply. Lisa Lawrence and Janice Somers led the D.D.H. hit parade with a single, double and two runs scored each.

The Farmers' (9-5) were led by game star Lee McKeown, who smacked a two-run homer and Lynn Moreland who had a pair of hits.

Halton Commercial Printers and Pictures and Presents battled to a 11-11 tie in a hard fought and exciting game. Mel Varley was the game star for Halton (2-10-2) with some great back-catching and a key two-run triple. Brenda Harrison chipped in with a strong game in the field for the winners.

POWDER PUFF BALL

Despite being involved in a number of close games this season P&P closed out the year with a disappointing 1-11-2 record.

SENIOR LEAGUE

Remax (9-3) avenged an earlier loss and clinched first-place in the process with a 31-7 shellacking of Dunlop Insurance. The entire Remax club played their best game of the year, led by hitting star Becky Sargent, who went four-for-five with two triples and an amazing nine rbi's.

Dunlop (1-11) never got started in this one, however, their two bright spots were Kristen Higgins and Jennifer Bennett with two hits each.

In a playoff preview, T.D. Bank slipped past Knechtel's

16-14. Amanda Nichol's fine pitching and big bat were the key for the winners. Nichol banged out a big double, as did, teammate Jackie Bell who also pitched well, while Mandy Storey contributed with some solid play in the field.

For Knechtel's Jaime MacDonald earned game star honors, knocking out three hits, including an home run, and scoring three times in a losing cause.

Both teams finish with identical 7-5 records.

Eagles edged at CNE

The Georgetown Major Pee Wee Eagles wrapped up their series of tournaments for 1996 by competing in the Lions 40th Annual CNE Tournament.

They were eliminated by Waterloo in a closely fought battle that featured some great hitting, great defensive plays and quality pitching from both teams. Georgetown starter Richard Gostlin pitched a very strong seven innings but unfortunately Waterloo notched a couple more hits to score the win.
