

Firestone Cruisers ready to roll

The Firestone Cruisers officially became a reality for all car enthusiasts last Sunday. Although the cruise season is coming to a close for this year, the Cruisers are preparing their schedule for next season, beginning in May of 1997.

Firestone Cruisers is the name voted on by all who attended their first annual cruise. Their next cruise will be on Oct. 6, meeting at Firestone in Georgetown at 1 pm. Anyone wishing to join is welcome. Bring your car, any year, and enjoy the cruise through the Forks of the Credit and Belfountain. No fee – just enjoy! The cruise will be followed with a year-end barbecue. Bring your own beverages, everything else is donated. See you there! Prize winners at last Sunday's cruise were: Jim Davies, Firestone jacket; Ardic Shoshanian, Bridgestone sweater; Jesse Hudson, Bridgestone jacket; Ken Hyatt, Bridgestone jacket; Robin Fox, oil, lube and filter compliments of Firestone Tire (Halton Hills Tire Centre); and Lester Hogan, tire rotation compliments of Firestone Tire (Halton Hills Tire Centre).

HISTORY ON WHEELS! The classic cars were ready to roll Sunday morning at Moor Park Plaza. The Firestone Cruisers, still in its' infancy, is a collection of vintage car enthusiasts who plan to hold regular meetings next summer. (Eve Martin photo)
