Raiders show grit in rough game

 and Milan Sloboda.
 The second period saw less scoring as the Vipers tried their luck with a new goalie.

Bouskill had the next and final Raider goal with assists going to McNiven and Presutti, who also had three points on the night. While Viper goal went to Monlz marking his second of the night.

"The guys really showed their youth in the third" said Bince as the Raiders played panic style hockey for the remainder of the game. "None-the-less," Bince added, "it was a nice way to open up at home."

The Raiders face Streetsville and Mississauga on the road this week before playing host to Oakville on Saturday at 7:30 pm. "If we play well, we should be able to take all three games this week," said the Raiders' veteran captain Duke Bouskill.
