

Minor Novices continue winning

The Georgetown Minor Novice Raiders kept their positive momentum during season play this week with a strong 2-2 tie against league leading Oakville, followed by consecutive 3-0 shut out victories over Milton and Burlington.

The last time the Raiders met their Oakville rivals they were the victims of an 8-0 shellacking. In tying their opponents this time around, the Raiders took advantage of strong defensive play and good goaltending to hand Oakville their first loss of points this season.

Starting the scoring for the Raiders was Micael Larose, assisted by Michael Clost and Raymond Martin.

The goal was well deserved after some aggressive forechecking by this newly formed line. Also scoring for the Raiders, on the power play, was Chris Darling assisted by Jeff Bayley and Ryan Putnam.

Back at home the Raiders were led to a 3-0 win over Milton with strong defensive play and the flawless goaltending of Alex Bulgarelli. Brady Gingras started things off once again hitting the mesh from the slot, followed by two markers from Jeff Bayley, including a last second individual effort. Assists went to Darling and Brett Reynolds.

The Raiders beat the Burlington Squad as Chris Darling played with the puck like it was on a string before twice threading the needle. Jeff Bayley put the final biscuit in the basket, giving the Raiders and Bulgarelli back to back shut out victories. Registering assists for the Raiders were Cory McLaughlin, Ryan Putnam and Brett Reynolds.
