

Major Novice Raiders going strong

The Georgetown Major Novice Raiders couldn't overcome the Orangeville Flyers hometown defense but Raiders goalie Jordan White kept the score to a respectable 3-0.

Dylan Malchin kept his team in the game when Georgetown hosted a tough Woolwich team. Being badly out shot, the game was kept scoreless until 58 seconds left in the game. Woolwich scored on a power play break away giving Georgetown a tough 1-0 loss.

The following night the Georgetown squad travelled to Brampton. Their offense came to life with Alex Ingrangaro scoring a pair of goals and Sean Logan scoring a single marker. Defenseman Kyle Oliver worked his way from his own end to score the third and winning goal. Assists went to Micheal Carter, Chad Skinner, Kyle Oliver, Corey Carlton, and Kevin Greer. Dylan Malchin kept the game scoreless for Brampton until the last five minutes of the game. This second 4-2 win against Brampton was a real morale booster for the Raider team.

The month of October is finished off with back to back games on the 26 and 27. A trip to Oakville was made on the 26 to play against the very tough Oakville Ranger squad. Jordan White played a great game letting in only three of the 25 shots against Georgetown.

Raiders offense came from Ryan Reist and Corey Carlton with Chad Skinner, Alex Ingrangaro, and Joel Greaves with assists in the 3-2 loss.

The following night Georgetown hosted the Brampton Maroons at the Memorial Arena. The Raiders jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first period with goals from Greaves and Ingrangaro. Sean Logan, Kevin Greer and Chad Skinner each received assists.

Brampton really turned up their game after scoring their first goal with only three seconds left in the first period.

SHORT END OF THE STICK! Raiders' winger Dave Cologiacamo had to stick it out Saturday as the Raiders met up with the Streetsville Derbys. No word on whether Cologiacamo had a case of razor burn after the game. (Jamie Harrison photo)
