

Subdivision tree preservation

Georgetown South resident Doris Treleaven's requests for a small parkette and preservation of old trees will be considered by Town staff in its report to Council on a proposed 18-lot subdivision on Argyll Road and the Eighth Line.

Columbia Hills Management Incorporated has applied to rezone the land, bounded on two sides by housing subdivisions, from rural to residential and Treleaven was the only person who raised concerns at a public meeting on the application last week.
