

Oates tourney tonight

Better Cut Keys and Independents follow on.

Gasketman defeated Guzzlers 9-2, New Dream Team rolled over Independents 13-0, Woodchuckers knocked over Better Cut 7-4, as Nimrods did likewise over Panthers. One Nimrod/Panther set took almost 20 minutes before the winning double one was struck, in the Panthers favour. Guzzlers were lackluster against Gaskets, who welcomed the return of Jeff Richardson after a few weeks absence. Chris Hildebrand joined Woodchuckers to fill out their roster.

Stan Rhynold opened 120 in amongst his five starts, and four finishes. Nick Thomas opened 108, and made four starts and finishes with Eric Fuller going four and three. Al Gardiner and Dan Abercrombie each had four opens.

This evening (18th) sees the league host the annual Alfred Oates Memorial four player teams night to be followed by the usual pre-Christmas festivities, at the McGibbon. The league then shuts down to January 8.

Your reporter takes this opportunity of wishing all readers, fans and otherwise, a hearty holiday season - see you around the halls of ivy and good cheer!

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY: COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS

Wicklow Hills Publishing Co. Inc., publishers of The Georgetown Gemini, House & Home Real Estate Journal and The Acton Tanner, has announced its intention to establish community-owned newspapers in Brampton and Milton. Wicklow Hills invites investment inquiries from individuals or companies who:

- are interested in owning a community newspaper, based on a Georgetown Gemini model;
- would like to receive all required training (editorial policy, advertising management, etc.);
- would like to own a turn-key, profitable newspaper operation that has established its market, its revenue base and its management system;
- believe that their community needs another voice to bring balance to editorial and advertising;
- would like to share in national advertising revenue distributed in all Wicklow Hills publications;
- understand that sharing costs with other community newspapers contributes to everyone's bottom line.

Wicklow Hills will bring all of this to you if you are appointed to own the rights to Brampton or Milton.
