

Novice Raiders unbeaten in nine straight games

The Minor Novice Raiders extended their current unbeaten string to nine games with three solid wins on the week.

The team jumped out to a quick 5-0 lead against a never say die Brampton squad, and settled for a 5-3 win after a

AA novice Raiders keep on battling

The AA Major Novice Raiders dropped a tight defensive battle to the visiting Brampton Maroons 1-0 recently despite the strong goaltending by Jordan White.

The team played strong defensive hockey in front of him led by Michael Clarizio, Ryan Torres, Corey Colarassi and Kevin Greer, however they were unable to put the puck in the net.

A visiting Burlington team then came to town and were able to earn a point after tying the game with less than a minute to go in the third period. Michael Carter and Alex Ingrangaro scored first period goals for Georgetown as the teams went to the locker room tie after one. Burlington then came out fast in the second period opening up a two goal lead, which stood until the third period. Corey Curtlen, Ingrangaro and Kyle Oliver scored third period goals to give the Raiders the lead until late in the game. Despite the strong goaltending by Dylan Malchin in the last few minutes Burlington persevered and tied the game.

shaky third period. Brett Reynolds, Peter Bailey, Michael Clost, Ryan Putnam and Jeff Bayley each contributed with a goal and an assist. Michael LaRose (2) and Raymond Martin also added assists.

In the week's closest contest, the Raiders edged their Milton rivals 3-2. Chris Darling had two goals with Bayley adding the third. They continued their winning ways with a decisive 4-1 victory over Burlington in their final game of the week. Alex Bulgarelli continued his fine

Fitzwhiskeys battles opponents and flu

A gritty group of Charley Fitzwhiskeys crippled by the flu bug came away from St. Catharines on Tuesday with a well earned 1-1 tie, allowing only five shots on net. Thomas Stokes notched the
