RAIDER GOALIE MCCARTHY FACES 60 SHOT ATTACK

Raiders routed in back to back pre-Christmas losses to Milton squad

BY TERRY ROUSE

The Georgetown Jr. A Raiders hockey club was no match for the first place Milton Merchants in a weekend home and home series as they dropped both games 7-2 and 9-1.

Last Saturday at home at the Gordon Alcott Arena, the Raiders took an early lead on a goal by Adam Bertoli, however it was all Milton after that as they ran up over 60 shots on Raiders's goalie Jonathan McCarthy

Milton then put the game away with an explosion of goals, four to be precise in the final five minutes of the second period and cruised to the victory.

On Friday after falling game up a notch after the minor scare as they scored five unanswered goals for the win.

The loss dropped the Raiders season record to a disappointing 2-30-1 including a 29 game winless streak. The Raiders start the new year with back to back home games this weekend Friday against the Mississauga Chargers and Saturday versus the Oakville Blades, as they look to end their winless skid. Their first road game of the new year isn't until January 10th when they travel to Bramalea to take on the Blues.

behind early in Milton, the Raiders battled back to tie at the game at 2-2 on goals by Ryan O'Dette and Krys Barch. Milton turned their

PeeWee 'Canes continue to dominate

The Major PeeWee Hurricanes have been virtually unstoppable throughout the month of December as they chalked up two more wins and two more ties this past week.

A much depleted team due to sickness and suspensions fought back to tie Brampton 2-2. Dave Taylor and Ryan Busby scored while Evan Jeans (2), and Trevor Kristianson assisted in the hard fought tie.

Burlington proved to be a little easier as the Canes dropped them 9-2. The Canes showed no mercy towards Burlington's back up goalie firing pucks at random and scoring almost at will. Taylor had a strong game netting four goals, Jeans scored two and singles went to Kristianson, Busby and Kyle Hotham.

A late goal by Ryan Emilio in the third period enabled the Canes to earn a point against Grey Bruce playing to a 3-3 tie.

Travis Van Loosen and Busby scored the other Cane goals in the close checking affair.

Finally the Canes downed Stoney Creek 3-1, on goals by Taylor, Busby and Van Loosen as the team earned their sixth point of the week.

Two out of three ain't bad

The Novice Hurricanes had another good week taking two of three games.

Goalie Madison Schott was the star in their first game as he earned the shutout in the 'Canes 3-0 win over Guelph.

Lawr honoured by Heritage Council

The Georgetown Hockey Heritage Council is set to hold its 20th Annual Hockey Heritage Awards Dinner at the Holy Cross Auditorium in Georgetown on Mar. 3, 1997.

Hockey Night In Canada host Ron MacLean will serve as master of ceremonies as they celebrate this years winner Sheldon "Shel" Lawr.

There will also be a special tribute to the previous 19 winners of the award dating back to the 1978. Previous recipients include Jack Harsion, Roy Norton Sr., Brizo Royal Canadian Legion, Bud James, Gerry Inglis, Robert Lane, Ron Dixon, Bob Goldham, Walter Bianchi, Del Beaumont, Walter Assectine, Robert Tost, Roy Ward, Gerry Perkins, Herb Robinson, Jim Ford, Karen Harrison, Norm Lockhurst and 96 winner Harold Gilmer.

The tribute will be held by Bryan Lewis, director of NHL officiating.

The committee has also scheduled TSN and Global T.V. personality Jim Ralph as the guest speaker for the event.

Anyone interested in attending this event should act immediately as the dinner is a virtual sellout with only eight tickets remaining.
